FRANCE WARNED BY ITALY AGAINST ANY AID TO LOYALISTS

FRANCO'S STRATEGISTS BELIEVE NEXT BATTLE WILL BE DECISIVE

By The Associated Press

Backed by an Italian warning to France to attempt no eleventh hour rescue of the Spanish republican government, insurgent troops were pouring into Catalonia today through a breach in Barcelona's "emergency" line of defense.

Generalissimo Francisco Franco's land and air forces, chopping at the northeastern remnant of government territory, were rapidly reducing the republic's scant quarter of Spain and threatening to wipe it out altogether.

Franco's strategists believed the next major encounter would come between Lerida and Barcelona and would be "decisive."

Italian official quarters acknowledged concern over the possibility that the French popular front government might go to the aid of Catalonia.

Premier Mussolini's foreign office organ, Informazione Diplomatica, published a statement yesterday that Italy was "following with greatest attention the campaign of French leftists for intervention in Spain."

In China, despite setbacks on the central war front, Japan set up a new "Chinese" government at Nanking and it was proclaimed the "Reformed Government of the Republic of China." Personnel of the new government was Chinese but its direction was firmly in the hands of Japan.

Chinese counterattacks on the central front had halted and in some cases thrown back the Japanese invasion from North China. Dispatches from Hankow, one of the provisional seats of the Nationalist Chinese government, said military leaders were convinced the Japanese southward drive against Suchow had been stopped.

Construction of First Unit REA Project to Start

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(Special to the Sun)—Aural Electrification Administration officials announced today contract between the Navarro Rural Power Co-Operative, Inc., and J. E. Morgan & Sons of El Paso for construction of the first unit of the project had been approved, and the contractor has been notified to begin work.

The project consists of 92 miles of power distribution system to serve 300 customers. The successful bid was $51,518.49 for materials and labor; the total cost with meters and overhead added will be $61,108.49 or an average of $665 per mile.

Twenty carloads of poles have been ordered for the project along with transformers and conductors and shipments are expected to begin arriving soon. The unit is located in the southwest section of Navarro county.

PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT HELD VALID

DECISION REPRESENTS VICTORY FOR GOVERNMENT IN REGISTRATION CASE

WASHINGTON, March 28—(AP)—The supreme court held constitutional today provisions of the public utility holding company act requiring interstate holding companies to register with the securities commission and submit financial statements.

Chief Justice Hughes delivered the decision that represented a victory for the government.

The court affirmed a ruling by the federal circuit court at New York upholding the registration requirement.

Justice McReynolds dissented. Justices Cardozo and Reed did not participate.

"To escape the penalty and the enforcing provisions of the decree," Hughes said, "all that the defendants have to do is to register with the commission and assume the obligation to file the described registration statement.

"All their rights and remedies with respect to other provisions of the statute remain without prejudice."

The litigation directly involved the Electric Bond & Share Company and 26 subsidiaries. It was picked up by the government as a test case.

The utilities contending that the entire act regulating holding companies was at issue. The government successfully asserted other provisions could be tested at the proper time and "under regular judicial procedure."

The holding company act, passed by congress in 1935, after a bitter contest, would bring under government regulation companies that control billions of dollars of interstate gas and electric business.

It was aimed at what the Roosevelt administration called abuses, including pyramiding and issuance of securities with fictitious values.

SENATE APPROVED BILL REORGANIZE U. S. GOVERNMENT

EFFORT TO SEND MEASURE BACK TO COMMITTEE FAILED PREVIOUSLY

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(AP)—The senate approved today the government reorganization bill giving President Roosevelt wide powers to reorganize executive departments.

The final vote was taken without objection immediately after motion by Senator Walsh (D-Miss) to send the bill back to committee had been defeated 48 to 43.

The senate had agreed to vote on final passage at 5 p. m., but opponents dropped their argument against the measure when the vote on Walsh's motion, regarded as a test, showed it was futile.

The vote on passage was 49 to 42.

Three hours of tense debate during which opponents and proponents of the measure acused each other of pursuing a course which might lead to dictatorship preceded the vote on Walsh's motion.

Walsh said that "precisely the same arguments" were being advanced in support of the measure that had been used "to overthrow the democracies of other countries."

Senator Green (D-RI) countered with the assertion that those who opposed the measure were "unwitting promoters of a dictatorship."

He declared that democracy was on the defensive because of its cumbersomeness, and urged passage of the bill, which would give the president broad powers to "streamline" the government by abolishing agencies and transferring their functions.

The volume of messages, reminiscent of the stacks received during the court reorganization fight, increased as the time approached for a vote on returning the administration measure to committee (2 p. m. central standard time.)

If that motion lost, the senate agreed to take a final vote on the bill itself two hours later.

Administration leaders, although predicting passage by a narrow margin, renewed their appeals to noncommittal senators in view of the outpouring of telegrams.

One telegraph company said it handled between 40,000 and 50,000 messages on the subject yesterday. Many were sent after an address by the Rev. Charles

TREASURY'S SILVER ACTION HAS AROUSED MEXICAN INTEREST

SPECULATION RIFE AS TO FURTHER REACTIONS TO OIL EXPROPRIATIONS

MEXICO CITY, March 28.—(AP)—The United States treasury's decision to cease buying Mexican silver aroused speculation here today as to what further reaction there would be in Washington over Mexico's expropriation of the foreign oil industry.

All of Mexico City was awaiting the outcome of a conference between representatives of the four American companies affected by the expropriation decree and Secretary of State Hull and Under-Secretary Sumner Welles in Washington.

American companies affected were the Huasteca Petroleum company, the Standard Oil company of California, the Mexican Sinclair Petroleum corporation and the Penn Mex Fuel company. The properties of 13 other foreign companies were taken over.

The United States has been buying about 5,000,000 ounces of Mexican silver monthly, paying for it nearly $2,500,000. The purchases were highly beneficial to Mexico's economy, enabling her to strengthen her foreign financial position.

The decision to suspend purchases was reflected here in a seemingly less friendly atmosphere toward foreigners. One American couple, longtime residents of Mexico City, reported shopkeepers in a big uptown market refused to sell them goods.

Mexican government officials, in accordance with President Lazaro Cardenas' admonitions to consider the United States treasury's action "with serenity and justice," declined to comment.

While struggling with gigantic financial problems created by taking over the oil industry and trying to run it efficiently, Mexico was confronted with an almost inevitable decline in the peso from its already low level of 4.20 to the dollar.

Can Absorb Part of Surplus

Bankers said the Mexican government could absorb a good part of the surplus silver production by coining new silver pesos. Silver production has been cut in half by the closing of American Smelting and Refining company's refinery in Monterrey.

TEAM CAPTAINS FOR CAMPAIGN

W. E. M'KINNEY

JOE E. BUTLER

Fifty members of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce divided into teams headed by W. E. McKinney and Joe E. Butler and with Ralph R. Brown as commander-in-chief will receive final instructions for the campaign to increase the budget of the organization to $11,000 at a breakfast at the Navarro hotel at 7:30 Tuesday morning.

Mr. McKinney has as his lieutenants F. H. Harvey, Jr. and Russell Purifoy, while Mr. Butler will have F. W. Smith and C. S. Dickens as his aides.

Lists of prospects will be distributed to the teams at the breakfast Tuesday along with final instructions and the workers paired for the personal solicitations. Chairman-Brown announced that the workers would be allowed to exchange cards with other groups prior to the start of the drive. Cash prizes of $10 and $5 have been offered for the best individual showings in the campaign.

Actual solicitation is scheduled to start immediately after a second breakfast Wednesday morning and the final "mop-up" effort is slated for Thursday.

MAJOR CREEKS OF COUNTY OVERFLOW THEIR LOWLANDS

FARM WORK WILL BE DELAYED RESULT OF HEAVY WEEKEND RAINFALL

Chambers creek overflowed its banks Sunday as the result of heavy rains on the upper watershed. Richland was overflowing in the western section of the county Monday morning and was reported almost bank full at Ward Bridge crossing and rising rapidly. Extensive damage will be done to farms in tht lowlands of these two major creeks, and farm work will be delayed for some time in the bottoms.

Smaller creeks of the county rose from the rains Saturday night but did very little damage.

All highways were open Monday and rail and inteururban traffic was normal.

The rainfall here for the 48 hour period ending at 7 o'clock Monday morning was 1.40 inches, 1.19 of that amount was recorded Saturday night.

With the exception of the overflowed sections in Richland and Chambers creek bottoms there will be no damage from the rain in this county. It will furnish plenty of moisture for corn, oats and other grains as well as putting land in fine shape for cotton planting.

Most of the corn in the county is up and looking fine. Oats also look fine, but some farmers have expressed the opinion that they are maturing too rapidly and fear that they will fall down or that they will be damaged by rust.

Some cotton is up and a considerable amount has been planted. The remainder will be planted as quickly as the ground dries sufficiently. Practically all land had been prepared for planting.

Work on the bridge across Chambers creek on Highway 22 was stopped and it will be several days before work is resumed.

YMCA Supporters Urged to Mail In Pledges at Once

With only twenty per cent of the annual budget of operating expenses raised in the "mail canvass" by cash and pledges, Y. M. C. A. officials today urged everyone who has not done so to mail their checks or pledges to the association. The "mail campaign" was voted at a recent meeting of the board of directors instead of the usual highly organized sales campaign, in order to conserve the time and efforts of the business and professional men of the city.

"While only one fifth of the total raised last year has been subscribed," it was pointed out today, "none are lowering their gifts to the association, and several persons have increased their contributions. This indicates that the Y. M. C. A.'s program in the community has merited the support of the people to the extent that they believe in its work and continue to support it financially as well as with their time. We urge every man and boy in the community to join the association—it is the hope of the directors and officials that the entire budget of the association will be subscribed for another year's work, without an intensive drive," they said.

Increased Debits Indicate Firmer Financial Trend

Bank debits for the week ending Wednesday, March 23 show a substantial increase over a similar period of a year ago, according to announcement today by N. Suttle Roberts, official of the Corsicana Clearing House Association.

For the week ending last Wednesday debits totaled $976,000 as compared with $961,000 a year ago. This is the first time an increase has been noted since the second week in January, Mr. Roberts stated.

An increase at this time of the year is considered a favorable sign and is indicative of firmer financial background with the possibility the low point has been reached and a leveling off trend is now under way, according to financial observers.

SEVERAL FAMILIES DRIVEN FROM HOMES BY FLOOD WATERS

WEEK-END RAINFALL IN DENTON SECTOR REGISTERED SIX AND HALF INCHES

By The Associated Press

Flood waters drove several families from their homes on banks of two creeks in east Denton last night and damaged a few small houses after a week-end rain fall of six and a half inches.

Heavy rains were believed responsible for weakening a railway trestle from which the engine and two cars of a M-K-T passenger train plunged near Denton last night, injuring three railroad men.

The U. S. weather bureau here forecast heavy rains in North Texas would cause the Elm and East Forks of the Trinity river to overflow lowlands and cause a rise at Dallas tonight on the main channel. Flood stage at Dallas, the bureau said, was not expected to reach the high stage of a few weeks ago when more than 41 feet was recorded.

Corsicana reported all creeks in Navarro county overflowing after rainfall of 1.40 inches in 48 hours. Highways were open

2 Commissioners Will Be Elected Tuesday, April 5

Two incumbent officials are candidates to succeed themselves at the regular city election to be held on Tuesday, April 5, according to the filings for places on the official ballot filed with City Secretary J. P. Welch up to Monday morning. The deadline for filing is midnight Monday.

Commissioner J. Harry Burke, completing his first term, filed for re-election several days ago, and was joined Saturday by John P. Garitty, now completing his second term.

Only two commissioners are to be elected and unless last minute oppositions develops to the candidates, the election will be a formality and a light vote is indicated.

FRANCO'S INSURGENT ARMY MARCHING UPON OLD CITY OF LERIDA

REBEL COMMANDER HOPES TO WIN MAJOR BATTLE AND THUS END WAR

HENDAYE, France (At the Spanish Frontier), March 28.—(AP)—Insurgent armies driving toward Barcelona and the Mediterranean today captured Barbastro and Fraga, government strongholds on main routes to the government capital.

Beyond Fraga, completely occupied early today, the insurgents reached mountain positions only 13 miles from Lerida, "key to Catalonia" and most important city between the onrushing insurgents and Barcelona.

Both armies indicated they expected a great battle, perhaps the last of the war, to be fought east of Lerida on the Catalovnian plains where the government was concentrating men and muntions for a stand. Lerida is 80 miles west of Barcelona.

Barbastro, 38 miles northwest of Lerida, fell to the northern-most insurgent column driving eastward from Huesca. It long had been government headquarters in Huesca province and was center of a highway network linking government defenses in the foothills of the Pyrennes.

Navarrese and Moroccan troops under General Juan Yague drove through Fraga toward Rerida. Insurgent dispatches said a pontoon bridge was thrown across the Cinca river at Fraga, permitting artillery, tanks and trucks to stream across to join the drive toward Barcelona.

Government troops were in retreat toward the Mediterranean and a climax seemed near after 20 months of conflict.

Insurgent troops were within 15 miles of Lerida, and insurgent warplanes were bombing it. Lerida is only 84 miles from Barcelona and is on the main highway to that provisional capital of Republican Spain.

Coupled with the Lerida campaign was a series of advances on the entire 135-mile eastern front, stretching from Boltana on the far north, a short distance from the French frontier, to Morella on the south.

Each advance was to the east and each moved the insurgent line closer to the Mediterranean, Morella, 30 miles from the coast, being the nearest.

By this steady press eastward the insurgents sought to sever the remaining major segment of Spanish government territory, northern Catalonia and southeastern Valencia, and thereby force the weakened halves to capitulate.

The insurgents entered hitherto quiescent Catalonia, Spain's northeast corner and government stronghold throughout the war, in a mass offensive yesterday.

They reached Fraga, just west of the Catalan border, at 5 p. m. Sunday, crossing the Cinca river there and smashing government fortifications on the heights above the river.

PRESIDENT SENDS HUNGARIAN PAYMENT PLANS TO CONGRESS

NO RECOMMENDATION, EXCEPT FOR "MOST CAREFUL CONSIDERATION," MADE

WASHINGTON, March 28—(AP)—President Roosevelt sent to congress today, without recommendation other than for "most careful consideration." Hungary's proposal for settlement of its debt to the United States.

Hungary offered last Feb. 23 to pay the debt, arising from post-war relief aid, "100 cents on the dollar," but asked to be freed of obligations to pay any interest.

The original debt was $1,685,000. Hungary has paid $478,000 in principal and interest and proposed that this be deducted, leaving the total obligation $1,207,000. to be paid in 30 annual, non-interest bearing installments.

Mr. Roosevelt told congress:

"I believe the proposals of the Hungarian government should receive the most careful consideration of the congress. They represent a noteworthy wish and effort of the Hungarian government to meet its obligations to this government.

"In its simplest terms, the offer of the Hungarian government is to repay to the United States the whole of the relief loan but without payment of interest thereon."

The president apparently having in mind the opposition some congressmen have expressed to the Hungarian debt proposal on the grounds it would serve as a precedent for larger debtors, added:

"It has of course been the consistent policy of the United States to consider each debt in the light of the circumstances of the debtor government and it is with this in view that the Hungarian communication is transmitted to the congress."

Mystery Man Dies

Col. Edward M. House, (above), mystery man of American political and diplomatic circles, died in New York early Monday following an extended illness. He became internationally famous as the right-hand man of President Woodrow Wilson during the troublous days of the world war.

NATIVE OF TEXAS INTERNATIONALLY KNOWN FOR DIPLOMATIC ACTIVITY

NEW YORK, Mar. 28.—(AP)—Col. Edward M. House, internationally known as a close advisor to President Woodrow Wilson during the trying World War era, died today after a long illness. He was 79 years old.

Colonel House's physicians said several weeks ago that he was "failing steadily" and that death was only a matter of time. He was suffering from a complication of ailments, and only last week had another relapse.

Only members of his family, including the widow, were with him when he died. His daughter, Mrs. Gordon Auchincloss, and her husband also were there.

For many years, Colonel House was active in affairs of the democratic party. He climaxed this activity when he became the personal representative of President Wilson to European governments in 1914, 1915 and 1916.

In 1927, President Wilson appointed Colonel House to gather and organize data to be used at the eventual peace conference, and he served as special representative of this country at the inter-allied conference of premiers and foreign ministers, held in Paris, Nov. 29, 1917, to effect a more complete co-ordination of the activities of the entente cobelligerents for the prosecution of the war.

He again represented the President in the supreme war council at Versailles, Dec. 1, 1917, and on Oct. 17, 1918, he was designated to act for the United States in the negotiation of an armistice with the central powers.

Reported Ill March 4.

Colonel House was first reported seriously ill of pleurisy on March 4 by Dr. Paul B. Sheldon, his personal physician. Since then he had been confined to his home, where he died.

Still keen and observant despite his declining years, Colonel House in one of his last interviews asserted flatly that President Roosevelt would not be a candidate for a third term.

The aged peace-maker also said America's best chance of remaining out of any future world conflict lay in a strong merchant marine and a powerful navy.

He was the last survivor of the American signatories of the treaty of Versailles.

To the end, Colonel House believed in the League of Nations, insisting it held the greatest possibilities for the solution of many of the world's problems. Only last year he gave his opinion that the United States would have joined the league if Wilson had retained his health.

Little Grey Man From Texas

The so-called "little grey man from Texas" always treasured the memory of his friendship with Wilson. He could never understand the sudden schism that disrupted their comradeship through the war years, and spoke of it as a "tragic mystery."

"My separation from Woodrow Wilson," he wrote, "is a mystery that now can never be dispelled, for it lies buried with him."

Colonel House had been in poor health for more than a

HOUSE WAS LAST OF TEXAS TRIUMVIRATE CLOSE TO WILSON

INTERNATIONALLY FAMOUS TEXAN CLAIMED AUSTIN AS HIS OFFICIAL HOME

AUSTIN, March 28.—(AP)—Death of Col. E. M. House today removed the last member of the triumvirate of Texans closely associated with President Woodrow Wilson.

Albert Sidney Burleson, postmaster general in Wilson's cabinet, died a few months ago, while Thomas Watt Gregory, attorney general under Wilson, preceded the others in death by several years.

Colonel House had been in Austin only infrequently in the last 25 years but regarded it is his official residence, designating the Texas capital on his stationery as his home.

News of his illness had been closely followed by state officials and others of a generation most of whom had no personal acquaintance with him but honored him as one of Texas' most distinguished sons.

Information of his death spread swiftly in city and State House and was the all-absorbing topic of comment.

Gov. James V. Allred was out of town but officials said the Lone Star flag on all state buildings would be half-staffed.

Born in Houston, House moved to Austin in young manhood, residing here many years.

He built a rambling red stone structure which became the political center of Texas and the social center of this part of the state, but now is a fraternity house at the University of Texas.

It was while living in Austin that House acquired the political skill and training that later advanced him to such a national and international position.

Never Backed A Loser.

Although he never intended to stay in Texas, House believed training in the state political arena was essential to an entrance into the national picture.

ARMY, NAVY, MARINE OFFICERS PLAN INTENSIVE CAMPAIGN FOR ENLISTMENT 300,000 MEN QUICKLY

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(AP)—General Malin Craig, army chief of staff, said today the nation's hope for peace depended upon its ability to mobilize its military strength quickly.

He told 50 active and reserve army, navy and marine officers studying plans for wartime recruiting that had the country been as well prepared in 1917 as it is now, the world war would have been won months earlier.

"Cold, hard common sense should tell us that if America knows how to swiftly mobilize her huge strength, that no sane person, be he monarch or dictator, will ever again bring it crashing down about him," Craig said.

"In planning we are far ahead of any period in our history. We have learned many lessons from the world war, not the least that distance does not mean immunity."

The reservists began a 12-day study of army and navy machinery to mobilize manpower, first through volunteers and then by selective draft machinery like that of the world war.

The program is aimed at obtaining 300,000 volunteers within 30 days, in contrast to the 86,000 who enlisted in the first month after American entrance in the World War.

The officers, representing 14 eastern states and Puerto Rico, also were studying a selective service system modeled after that of 1917-18, which the volunteer recruiting campaign would supplement

Details of the machinery to mobilize manpower quickly in the event of another conflict have been worked out in the last 19 years—ever since General John J. Pershing returned from France to become chief of staff.

In contrast with the secrecy that traditionally surrounds military plans, American M-day (Mobilization Day) industrial and personnel objectives ar not secret. The latter are:

1 The army and national guard, numbering 375,000 to 400,000 men, and the navy a third as many, would be ready for action at the start of war.

2 In 30 days 300,000 volunteers and in 60 days, 500,000 would be sought to expand the regular fighting units and for replacements.

3 From 45 to 60 days, operations would be started by a countrywide universal draft organization of 150,000 men and women. By the end of the fourth month, the army would try to have 1,250,000 recruits, the navy 500,000.

TEXAS GAS RATE CASE ARGUED BEFORE SUPREME COURT; CLAIM CONSTITUTION WAS VIOLATED

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(AP)—Counsel for the Lone Star Gas company contended today in an argument prepared for the supreme court the Texas Railroad Commission had violated the constitution in ordering a reduction from 40 cents to 32 cents a thousand cubic feet in the gas rate charged 275 Texas cities.

Attorneys for the Railroad Commission were present to reply that the prescribed rates were fair and that the state had acted within its authority.

The litigation has been described as the biggest gas rate controversy in the history of the Southwest. A supreme court ruling is expected before the summer recess.

The 1933 order applied to rates charged distributing companies operating within the cities. All of them, except two at Waxahachie and Gainesville, are affiliated with the Lone Star Company.

The gas is delivered at the city gates.

Pending a final decision, the old rates have remained in effect. If the commission wins, refunds will be made. No estimate of the amount was given.

Directly at issue was the $46,246,617 valuation placed by the commission on the company's system. The company contended the cost of reproducing the system would be $73,983,405.

In a brief presented to the court preliminary to oral argument, the company asserted part of the gas moved from Texas into Oklahoma and back into Texas and some was purchased in Oklahoma and consumed in Texas.

It contended this was interstate commerce and a state commission had no right to regulate the charges because that was a federal power.

In addition, it said the rates prescribed were "confiscatory" and would not produce a fair return.

A brief submitted by Attorney General William McCraw said "the company's contentions are, in their essence, but a challenge to the entire rate regulatory power of the state."

TEXAS A. AND M. COLLEGE TO HAVE MANY GRADUATES

COLLEGE STATION, March 28.—(Spl.)—Texas A. and M. College, which has broken enrollment records consistently the past few years, will offer its largest graduating class of record early in June. A total of 546 students have applied for baccalaureate degrees to be awarded Friday night, June 3, and 26 students have applied for advanced degrees.

Fifty years ago, in 1888, the college awarded a total of 17 degrees.

Throughout its 61 years the institution has granted a total of more than 7,500 degrees. The current record total of degrees to be awarded at any one commencement was set the past year when a total of 415 graduates received baccalaureate degrees.

The school of agriculture leads in total number of applicants with 268. The school of engineering has 178 degrees applicants, the school of arts and sciences 64 and the school of veterinary medicine 36. Agricultural administration and agriculture are the leading courses of study among the prospective graduates, each having a total of 95 applicants for degrees.

DISTRICT GOODYEAR SALESMEN TO MEET AT DINNER HERE

Forty Goodyear salesmen of this district, which includes Navarro, Ellis, Freestone and Limestone counties, are expected to attend the district sales meeting and dinner at 7 o'clock tonight at the Navarro hotel.

After the dinner pictures are to be shown, a musical program will be given and a general sales meeting will follow. Leon Daniels, Corsicana representative, will be master of ceremonies, assisted by C. L. Moore, factory representative and district salesman in Goodyear's general lines. Mr. Moore's headquarters are located in Corsicana and his territory covers six nearby counties.

Other meetings similar to tonight's will be held in Athens Tuesday night, and Hillsboro Wednesday night. Mr. Daniels will attend them.

Charged Driving While Intoxicated

H H. Graves was named in a driving while intoxicated complaint accepted Monday morning by the criminal district attorney's office following investigations by Deputy Sheriff Alton Bradley into three wrecks Sunday morning at 3 o'clock on Highway 31 immediately east of the Corsicana city limits.

Three automobiles were allegedly involved in the wrecks, the officers reported. One of the cars was driven by James Taylor, Kerens Tribune editor, and was reported badly damaged when it was struck by another car.

The case was scheduled to be filed before Judge A. E. Foster during the day.

THEY'LL SHOW TEXAS EXES A NEW CAMPUS

AUSTIN, March 28.—(Spl.)—Inside the massive campus power plant, Adele Neely of Dallas and Ellen Umphres of Amarillo, co-ed members of Texas University's Orange Jackets, demonstrate to Dean H. W. Harper of the University, how their honorary organization will guide this year's Round-up visitors around the university's now completed campus, April 8-9-10.

Dean Harper, chairman emeritus of this year's homecoming for Texas Exes, and a 44-year veteran of the university administration, will be a far more familiar landmark to most returning ex-students that the new $20,000,000 physical plant in Austin.

Petite Miss Neely and Miss Umphres will play a double roll in this year's festivities. In addition to their rolls as guides for alumni and visitors, they are both nominees this year for campus beauties, and will be presented the night of April 8, in the traditional Round-up Revue and Ball.

Guide service for the campus, Texas Ex officials say, will be emphasized this year because a completed campus will be on display for the first time in Round-up nine-year history. Texas Memorial Museum, last building in a 10-year construction program, is nearly complete and will be open for partial inspection of visitors.

On the three-day alumni program, in addition to alumni reunion classes and the revue and ball, will be a 3-mile Round-up parade, two varsity baseball games, and a four-way track meet between Texas, Baylor, S. M. U. and T. C. U.

OFFICES OF COUNTY AGENTS ARE BEING ENLARGED TODAY

Carpenters were busy Monday finishing up the work incident to the re-arrangement of offices of the county and home demonstration agents in the northeast corner of the courthouse basement.

The offices of County Agent H. C. Robinson and Home Demonstration Agent Clara E. Rettiger will be located in the eastern half of the quarters while the western half, formerly occupied as the book storeroom for the county superintendent's department, will include the typists and the other workers incident to the farm program.

The books have been moved to the space located in the southwest corner of the basement adjacent to the offices of the county superintendent.

J. M. DYER LEAVES ON BUYING TRIP TO EASTERN MARKETS

J. M. Dyer left Monday morning for New York on his mid-season buying trip for J. M. Dyer & Company.

Special collections of play clothes. resort type linen dresses, and sheer cottons will be bought. Chiffons and marquisettes, favorites for summer wear, will be selected in time to reach Corsicana for mid-April buying.

Navarro County Baptist Auxiliary Met at Streetman

The Navarro County Auxiliary meeting was held with Streetman Baptist church Tuesday, March 22. Different phases of our state work were discussed. The morning devotional was given by Mrs. Sherrord of Streetman. Rev. W. O. Patterson's discussion of Jacksonville College and what it represents, was very instructive. Our duty to Jacksonville College was ably discussed by Rev. Henry of Rice. The sermon by Rev. Parnell on the pre-eminence of Christ, was enjoyed by all.

Devotional in the afternoon was given by Mrs. Brigance of Rice. A fine paper about woman—her place in the Master's service, was read by Mrs. Gooden of Navarro. Mrs. Frank Wilson of Petty's Chapel made a very interesting talk on "State and Interstate Missions." Little Bobbie Sue Coulson sang a song. The talk given by Mrs. Pike of Corsicana on foreign missions was well received. A good report on the Orphans Home was given by Mrs. Fitzgerald. Man yimprovements have been made at the Home and it is now out of debt.—Reporter.

TICKLE SENTENCED TO THREE YEARS IN FEDERAL PRISON

A. R. Tickle, former detective of the Corsicana police department, was sentenced to three years in the federal penitentiary in federal district court in Dallas Saturday on two cases of violating of the prohibition laws. He had previously plead guilty but sentence had been deferred by Federal Judge T. W. Davidson.

Tickle recently entered a plea of guilty to an indictment in the Thirteenth judicial district court here for murder in connection with the fatal shooting of Noley Cook, ex-convict, last spring and was given a two to three year sentence after both state and defense attorneys had reached an agreement. The first trial on the murder indictment last December resulted in a hung jury. Sentence was pronounced by Judge Wayne R. Howell.

The three year federal sentence will be served in the federal penitentiary concurrently with the sentence imposed in the local state court.

After pleading guilty here, Tickle gave notice of appeal and was released on bond of $5,000. The appeal was dismissed Saturday.

URGES STATE-WIDE OBSERVANCE CLEAN UP WEEK APRIL 3-10

AUSTIN, March 28.—(Spl.)—Marvin Hall, state fire insturance commissioner, today urged statewide observance of Clean-Up Week as an effective means of fire prevention. The week of April 3-10 has been set aside by Governor James V, Allred for the annual clean-up campaign.

"This will be an excellent opportunity to dispose of unnecessary rubbish, combustible materials, and inflammable goods or solutions which naturally accumulate around the home, store, and factory," Hall said. "These, and other hazards, can be removed or reduced to the direct benefit of all concerned."

Hall explained that the people of Texas had made great progress with their fire prevention activities during the past few years, and that reduction in insurance cost had been the result.

"We cannot afford to jeopardize this good record," he said. "Clean-up Week will be an appropriate time for us to eliminate any hazards or conditions that might start or spread a fire."

"It is only through such care and diligence that fire prevention can be successfull," Hall pointed out. "For this reason I urge every Texas citizen to observe Clean-Up Week, and to extend the fire prevention activities of that week to include every day of the year."

Richland Negro It Fatally Shot

Jesse Carroll, about 50, negro resident of Richland, was killed about midnight Saturday night on South Ninth street.

City and county officers Monday were seeking Cleve Hawkins, negro, in connection with the fatal shooting. Officers reported a 12 guage shotgun was used.

It was reported the two negroes had previously been involved in a misunderstanding.

Constable Clarence Powell and City Officer M. S. Griffin found the shotgun and an overcoat allegedly the property of the wanted negro, under the wharf at Stroud-Dockum Grocery Company, near where the shooting occurred. Officers reported the negro got into an automobile and escaped.

Constable Powell stated the victim had been shot twice with a shotgun at close range, one charge entering the body below the right nipple and the other in the back. Carroll died instantly.

Mrs. G. E. Ramsey, Sr., teacher in the Blooming Grove high school has been the director of these plays. C. C. Isbell is the superintendent.

Kerens Woman Was Honored With Tea On 70th Birthday

KERENS, March 25.—(AP)—Mrs. J. B. Reece was honored by her children in an especially nice way when they sent invitations to some 150 friends and relatives for a lovely tea on her 70th birthday, Thursday, March 24th, from 4 to 6 p. m.

The tea was given in the home of Mrs. R. H. Mays, with Mrs. Pat Murpjhrey, Mrs. Bob Ford, Mrs. Carrie McKinney, rs A. L. Bain, and Mrs. Charles Reece, joint hostesses.

Guests were met at the door by Mrs. Mays and invited into the living room where Mrs. Reece, her face lighted with the surprise and please of the occasion, greeted each in her ever-chaming and sweet manner.

The home was a veritable hot house with the many specimens of pot plants and cut flowers which had been sent in by admiring friends.

Tea was served from a lace laid table, whose central atraction was a three tier birthday cake decorated in pastel shades, flanked on either side by chrystal candelabra holding pastel tapers in three shades. Trays of chrystal held an assortment of cakes and handmade mints in basket-shape, carrying out the chosen colors.

Mrs. Lon Holt and Mrs. Charles Reece presided over the tea table. Mrs. A. L. Bain had charge of the book in which each guest registered. A musical program was given by Mrs. M. O. Cheek, consisting of violin and piano numbers.

The large number who called to wish "many happy returns of the day" testified in part to the esteem in which Mrs. Rece is held by all who know her.

Kerens Lions Club Enjoyed Excellent Program Thursday

KERENS, March 25.—(Spl.)—The Kerens Lions club enjoyed a very interesting and unique program when they met in regular session for their luncheon at the Kerens Hotel Thursday at 12:15 p. m.

Pat Murphrey, president, was in charge, and announced that one of their number, namely, F. A. Elliott, had the honor of having secured 10 new members since the last meeting, seven of which were present.

In recognition of the "sales ability" of Lion Elliott it was unanimously voted to designate the next regular meeting date as "Elliott Day."

Mr. Murphrey then introduced Eric Ellis of Corsicana, who was in charge of and showed a motion picture, whose title was "Selling." The picture was a vivid portrayal of the well known fact that "all the world's a stage, and all its people players," and strangely reminded each and every one present that, regardless of the business in which we are engaged, we continually are "selling ourselves."

Some 30 minutes of profitable entertainment was provided by the showing of this picture, and the club felt they were indebteded to Mr. Ellis for making it possibl.

The new members who took the pledge were Horace Newsome, Horace DeJarnett, Robert Lowe Sach Carroll, Hoyt Dixon, William Bain, Charles Cherry, C. W. White, Alvin Inmon and Mrs. Bertha Moore Nisholson. Mrs. Nicholson holds the distinction of being the only woman member of this wide-awake club of business and professional men.

Mrs. J. A. Townsend Observed Her 86th Birthday Quietly

Mrs. J. A. Townsend passed her 86th birthday Wednesday, March 23, in a very quiet and unassuming manner, and was made quite happy by lovely gifts, telegrams and beautiful flowers sent by loved ones and friends, as well as a visit from her niece, Mrs. Florence Logan of Dallas.

Among her flower gifts was a beautiful bouquet from her graud-daughter, Mrs. E. L. N. Glass of Richmond, Va.

Although Mrs. Townsend has reached her 86th milepost in life's journey, she is as bright and active and young-looking as a woman many years her junior.

Much deserved honors have been bestowed upon her lately, as a pioneer club woman and beloved citizen in the nature of a life membership in the Kinsloe Woman's Club House, and the naming of one of the club rooms for her.

Mrs. Townsend's host of admiring friends join in extending hearty congratulations and in wishing her many more happy returns of the day.

Other Beautiful Flowers Now Line Roadside Sectors

Now that the dogwood has about passed its most beautiful stage, other blooming shrubs are attracting the attention of lovers of nature on their drives over the county.

A shrub not so well known—Eve's necklace—is at its most beautiful stage at present, its lovely blooms draping the roadsides as one drives off the Corbet pike about two miles.

Those desiring to see this picturesque sight are directed to take the first right hand road at the end of the pavement.

JAPANESE ANSWER TO GUERILLA WAR IS DESTRUCTION

MORE THAN TWO HUNDRED VILLAGES REPORTED TO HAVE BEEN BURNED

By JAMES D. WHITE

WITH THE COMMUNIST ARMY IN NORTH CHINA, March 26.—(AP)—The Japanese army's answer to Chinese red army guerrilla raids along railway and communication lines in North China is complete destruction of all villages suspected of harboring these "bandits."

General Yu Cheng-Tsao, commander of China's "red" army in Hopeh province, declares that more than 200 villages have been burned in the past month, with extensive loss of life.

Accounts of the burning of nearly 100 such villages were obtained by the Associated Press from persons witnessing the fires.

It has been conservatively estimated that 2,500 Chinese farmers have been killed, 3,000 wounded and about 40,000 driven into mountain refuges or forced to flee into "red" territory.

The burning of villages was said to be continuing at a rate of about three a day. Stories of these burnings are accompanied by declarations that the civilian populations were mistreated. In some cases these "atrocity stories' told of natives being tortured, women assaulted and men being burned alive.

In trying to check on these stories, I visited one group of five villages east of Tinghsien, where I found all huts had been reduced to burned shells. The ruins were deserted. Animal carcasses were strewn about, carts were wrecked, wells were polluted and human skeletons were lying in the road, eaten by wild dogs.

The Japanese said this destruction of villages, lives and property was done by Chinese "bandits" but persons who claim to have seen the destruction deny this.

Burnings Add to Forces.

"We are prepared to give all the refugees land and food," General Yu said in discussing the situation. "Young huskies become guerrillas and in every village burned we gain another battalion.

"If the Japanese are invading North China to help the Chinese people, as claimed, then their torch policy now is destroying the last vestigate of sympathy, even from Chinese traitors."

The worst case of destruction rejorted to the Associated Press was at a village on the bank of the Hutou river, east of Peiping-Hankow railway, formerly inhabited by 4,000 persons. Three hundred Japanese soldiers in trucks drove there on Feb. 27 and, according to witnesses, opened fire with cannon and machine guns.

Fleeing natives were shot as they ran. Others drowned trying to cross the river. Witnesses said it was definitely known that 628 lost their lives. Of the survivors, 1,500 fled into "red" districts where they were fed.

A Catholic church in this town was burned and three Chinese priests executed, according to these witnesses. American protestant churches nearby were not touched.

Japan Heads for Dictatorship

TOKYO, March 26.—(AP)—Japan took a long stride toward a dictatorial government today as parliament passed a measure placing the nation's entire electric power industry in the hands of the government.

Passage culminated 36 hours of continuous debate which at times exploded into acrimonius exchanges and scuffling on the floor of the diet (parliament).

General Gen Sugiyama, war minister and one of the bill's strongest proponents, declared the concentration of authority was necessary in case of war.

Chinese Victorious.

SHANGHAI, March 26.—(AP)—The revigorated Chinese army, beaten back for months, had turned today and was winning victories on several fronts.

The widely-extended Japanese invaders were stopped cold in the Wuhu and Hangchow sectors west and southwest of Shangha, while in the bloody Central China war zone they were subjected to heavy losses.

Chinese guerilla raids cut railway lines between Shanghai and Nanking, between Nanking and Pengpu and between Shanghai and Hangchow.

In Southeastern Shansi province the Chinese reported recapturing Linsheng, killing more than 1,000 Japanese and taking scores of prisoners.

Severe fighting continued around Lini in Southern Shantung province, where the Japanese for weeks have been struggling futively to advance southward and sever the Lunghai railway.

TOKYO, March 26.—(AP)—Evidence of strain upon Japan's financial and material reserves was seen today in the commodity price index which showed a sharp rise during March.

Cabinet statistics bureau compilations showed that the cost of all essential commodities increased.

This was the first time since the outbreak of the Chinese-Japanese conflict that prices had advanced generally in all categories. Hitherto, the monthly indexes have been spotty.

Stolen Abandoned Car Found In Ditch In Kerens Sector

KERENS, March 26.—(Spl.)—Constable A. H. Holloway discovered a Chevrolet sedan in a ditch near the Lone Star Gas company pump station Wednesday which seemed to have been abandoned. A letter addressed to the owner, an attendant at the State Hospital for the Insane at Terrell, was found in the car and Constable Holloway communicated with him and learned the car had been stolen by one of the inmates of the institution, who, it was reported, was trying to go to East Texas.

The owner of the car came for it Thursday and to date the afflicted thief had not been found.

Pennies Offered In Payment Auto Registration Fee

Deputies in charge of the automobile registration booth in the lobby of the court house relate what apparently was a practical joke by an automobile owner who this week brught a sack of 1,044 pennies to the booth to pay for the registration of his automobile.

According to the information received, the pennies were loose in a flour sack, the exact amount for the payment of the registration fee for the customer's automobile for 1938.

It was necessary for the deputies to work overtime in counting out the pennies, getting to go home later than usual.

The pennies were accepted, however, and were counted. The postoffice and banks will not accept large numbers of pennies unless they are in rolls to facilitate counting.

GENERAL, SPECIAL FIELDS JOURNALISM DISCUSSED AT WACO

DON MELLETT MEMORIAL LECTURE DELIVERED AT BAYLOR FRIDAY NIGHT

WACO, March 26.—(AP)—There is no fear for democracy in America as long as there is a free press, Dr. C. D. Johnson of Blue Mountain, Miss., told the closing session of the Southwestern Journalism Congress at Baylor University here today.

Dr. Johnson, who founded the congress here ten years ago, said journalism and democracy are the world's greatest twins. "The time has come," he said, "when America must realize the pen is indeed mightier than the sword as we gaze at clouded war horizons in the old world."

Dr. Wright C. Moore, of Nashville, editorial secretary for the Sunday school board of the Southern Baptist Convention, discussed opportunities in religious journalism.

David A. Cheavens, Texas state editor for the Associated Press, told the students the most important thing, in training for Associated Press work, was to learn to "think straight."

"An Associated Press staff man, serving such a wide diversity of newspapers, first of all must learn to write the news exactly as it happened, without prejudice. He must learn to write briefly, and discriminate between the essential and the non-essential.

"While this is primarily a question of news judgment, his judgment is governed by his ability to think straight. Every story or would-be-story is an individual problem. No one can tell him what or how much to write—sooner or later, if he is to get anywhere in his profession, he must learn to think quickly and correctly in reaching his decision.

Courney Carrell, fashion editor of Radio Station WFAA, Dallas, discussed the nature of that work.

The Don Mellett Memorial Lecture, by Dr. John H. Finley, editor-in-chief of the New York Times, featured last night's session of the congress. Each year an outstanding journalist delivers a lecture in memory of the Canton, Ohio, editor who was slain by gangsters whom he had exposed through his newspaper.

"The Printed Word" was the topic of Dr. Finley, who said "man's struggle for the truth and his willingness to die in its defense are evidences of his sharing the divine.

"It is the newspaper press that has made democracy possible... Journalists on modern newspapers are historians for they record history in the making...The newspaper must know truth, as fully as can be known, and be ready and fearless to tell it."

Dr. Edward N. Doran of the University of Kansas, speaking on "The Rights of Privacy," said that newspapers had gone to excess of late in publishing private matters of prominent people. He said that the nation does not approve of the forecast of "blessed events" and of too-personal candid photographs.

COOLING SYSTEM BEING INSTALLED PALACE THEATRE

A crew of men, representing the Waco Air Conditioning company, started work this week installing a Carrier Air Conditioning system in the Palace Theater here. The present air washing and circulating fans will be taken out and replaced with the newer system which filters, cleans and refrigerates the air before circulating it through the auditorium.

Engineers Avera and Laughlin are representing the Waco company.

Freon is the refrigerant to be used in the new equipment, which will keep the air at a comfortable temperature with a thermastat-control, regardless of the outside temperature. The air will be brought through the roof of the theater by ducts that are controlled by a damper. The air will be filered and cleaned, and then refrigerated, and admitted into the auditorium through grills that are to be placed in the ceiling. The air will be circulated through the auditorium and the used air taken out through special grills to be cut at the foot of the stage. The louvres now used by the air-washing system are to be closed, as they will not accommodate the needs of the new equipment.

The refrigeration machinery will be placed in the basement under the stage. It is expected the new system will be in use by May 1.

Prominent Alto Farmer Dies.

ALTO, March 26.—(AP)—M. Wilmer Rozelle, 53, prominent farmer and Cherokee county commissioner, died here today of a heart attack. The widow, three sons and a daughter survive.

JUSTISS ELECTED CHAIRMAN WARD 3 AT DEMO MEETING

TWENTY-FOUR CANDIDATES HAVE FILED FOR PLACES ON TICKET

A. N. Justiss was elected as chairman of Ward 3, Corsicana, at the special meeting of the Navarro County Democratic executive committee Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at the courthouse.

Mr. Justiss, a former member of the Texas legislature and former Corsicana postmaster, succeeds Judge B. W. George, resigned. Judge George is now associate justice of the Tenth Supreme Judicial District Court of Civil Appeals, Waco.

N. B. Crawford of Kerens, county chairman, presided. Chairman Crawford announced the next meeting of the executive committee would be held June 20 when arrangements for the expenses for the democratic primaries this summer would be made.

Twenty-four candidates have filed their applications for places on the ticket in the approaching primaries with Lawrence (Sadie) Ransom, secretary to the county committee, it was announced Saturday morning. Those filed include:

J. R. Donnell, flotorial representative from Navarro and Hill counties; R. W. Martin, justice of the peace, precinct 1, place 2; D. D. Sawyer, Dawson, flotorial representative; Roy Canady, representative, Navarro county; A. E. Foster, justice of the peace, precinct 1, place 1; Rufus Pevehouse, sheriff.

Doyle Pevehouse, flotorial representative; R. A. Caldwell, district clerk; W. T. McFadden, justice of the peace, precinct 1, place 2; George W. Barcus, Waco, associate justice of the court of civil appeals, Waco; Hayden Paschal, county treasurer; G. H. Brown, county superintendent; B. V. Hatley, Chatfield, justice of the peace, precinct 2.

J. O. Sessions, Bazette, commissioner, precinct 2; Leo Sands, Chatfield, constable, precinct 2; C. O. Slaughter, Currie, commissioner, precinct 3; Paul H. Miller, county judge; J. N. George, Blooming Grove, commissioner, precinct 4; T. P. Hayes, commissioner, precinct 1; Lyda Reed, county clerk; Lawrence (Sadie) Ransom, county clerk; Lonnie L. Powell, district clerk; W. B. Grantham, constable, precinct 1; Clarence Powell, constable, precinct 1.

RECOVERY TO COME ONLY WITHOUT AID GOVERNMENT PLANS

NEW YORK, March 25.—(AP)—Senator Bailey (D-NC) asserted today that "permanent recovery" would be reached only when the government ceased trying to "solve economic difficulties in a political way."

In an address to the American Academy of Political Science Senator Bailey forecast that the American people would "pay the price, whatever it might be" to "preserve constitutional representative democracy."

He outlined these steps as among those essential to permanent recovery:

Abandonment of government policies tending to "impair incentive."

Elimination of the undivided profits tax and the present form of the capital gains taxes.

Abondonment of "the policy of government competition with private enterprise."

A balanced budget.

"A just law as between management and workers."

Encouragement of increasel production of annual wealth instead of reducing production "to increase scarcity."

Allay business fears of a breakdown of the existing economic system.

Voting Strength Navarro County Estimated 12,000

Voting strength of Navarro county for 1938 is estimated at approximately 12,000 by officials at the courthouse.

The total number of polls paid this year were 8,439, while there were 374 new exemptions secured, giving a total of 8,813. Added to that are those persons residing in Corsicana over 60 years of age who have permanent exemptions and all residing outside of Corsicana over 60 years old who are not required to secure exemptions to vote. No definite figure is available, but it is estimated there are more than 3,000 people in Navarro county over 60 years of age as approximately 1,500 have applied for old age assistance over 65 years of age.

T. A. Farmer, assessor and collector of taxes, stated the poll tax payments for 1938 were about 800 under those of 1936, the last gubernatorial election year.

Former Corsicana Resident Victim Of Accidental Bullet

George Beck, former resident of Corsicana, was accidentally shot Wednesday night at Houston and is reported in a serious condition at St. Joseph's Infirmary there. He was reported to have been struck by a stray bullet when two men engaged in an altercation on the streets.

For County Judge

In announcing my candidacy for re-election (second term) to the office of county judge I wish to say that if you have judged me faithful to the performance of my duties in the past and feel that the best interests of the county will be served in my re-election I earnestly ask your support.

Sincerely,
PAUL MILLER.

Five Killed In Automobile Crash In Rhode Island

WOONSOCKET, R. I., March 26.—(AP)—Five men in a light sedan were killed today when the car failed to take a sharp curve, shot across a state highway and was wrecked against a tree.

One of the five was a Woonsocket patrolman, father of seven children, who was still on crutches as a result of a motorcycle accident on duty last December.

The dead were identified as Norbert Arsenault, about 36, the policeman; Dennis Fatsy, Isaie Tanguay, Joseph Dubois and Emile Leduc, all of Woonsocket.

Arsenault and Fatsy were wedged in the front seat of the car and a wrecker had to pull the vehicle apart before their bodies could be extricated.

TRADE BALANCE OF UNITED STATES IN FEBRUARY LARGE

SOLD HUNDRED MILLION MORE GOODS ABROAD THAN THE COUNTRY PURCHASED

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP)—The United States sold $100,000,000 more goods abroad than it bought during February, the commerce department announced today.

February exports were 13 per cent larger than in the same month a year ago and imports were 41 per cent smaller. Both exports and imports were under January levels, however.

Exports totaled $262,733,000 and imports $163,085,000.

Among commodities exported in much larger volume in February than a year ago were lard, wheat, feed grains, feeds, leaf tobacco, wood pulp, petroleum, iron and steel manufactures, well and refinery machinery, metal working machinery, automobiles, aircraft and fertilizers.

Exports of canned salmon, dried fruit, canned fruit, cotton, lumber, copper, radios, office appliances and coal tar products decreased.

Other items on which imports were reduced were grains, vegetable oils, oil seeds, coffee, cocoa, furs, wool, silk, precious stones and wood pulp.

For the first two months of the year, the United States had in excess of exports over imports of $218,355,000, compared with an excess of imports last year amounting to $62,364,000.

Gold imports during February totaled $8,211,000 and gold exports $171,000. Silver imports amounted to $15,388,000 and silver exports $223,000.

The commerce department also said gold imports in the week ended March 18 totaled $5,335,735 and silver imports $1,608,368. Ilgible. Japan supplied $4,483,563 Exports of both metals were neg- of American gold purchases, and most of the silver came from Mexico.

EUROPEAN NATIONS WILLING LEND AID IN REFUGEE HAVEN

LONDON, March 26.—(AP)—The United States' proposal that European and American governments co-operate in affording political refugees a haven appeared today to have met a favorable reception in Europe.

While reports from Vienna told of several thousand Austrians — mostly Jews—storming the United States consulate for visas to flee abroad, a preliminary survey of reaction to the United States relief proposal indicated:

That Europe's liberal and democratic nations favored the proposal and that no obstacle of carrying it out had been encountered officially so far.

The London News Chronicle editorialized by saying:

"Through this action, the United States has given a timely and courageous lead to the world. Our government have promised a speedy reply. We hope it will be one of full cooperation."

The French press gave prominent display to the story Switzerland was counted among the most interested countries because Austrian refugees have been pouring across its borders for days.

Scandinavian countries gave sympathetic attention to the United States' suggestion.

Italy, however, remained silent and nothing officially was heard about Secretary Hull's suggestion in Austria. Germany ignored it, since Reichfuehrer Hitler's government was not made a party to the proposal.

Predicts Serious Results.

BERLIN, March 26.—(AP)—Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbel's newspaper, Ded Augriff, commenting on President Roosevelt's proposal for joint European-American action to aid political refugees, today prophesied that America would experience serious domestic disturbances as a result of letting refugees enter the United States.

"America still is a young nation," Der Angriff said, "and its political body already has digested many a difficult morsel.

"What now, however, is to be added to the American blood stream's foreign strength carries the same common poison—Moscow poison. In America there still will be serious inner disturbances until the healthy strength of Anglo-Saxon folk has destroyed or absorbed immigrant injections.

"But is that in the spirit of 'Mr. Smith of Middletown?'"

SENATE DECIDES ON JOINT PROBE OF TVA BY SENATE-HOUSE

FIVE SENATORS AND FIVE REPRESENTATIVES ARE TO MAKE INVESTIGATION

WASHINGTON, Mar. 25.—(AP)—The senate today adopted a compromise resolution calling for a joint senate-house investigation of the TVA.

The resolution was proposed by Senator Barkley of Kentucky, the democratic leader.

It included some requests for information on the TVA, advanced by Senators Bridges (R-NH) and King (D-Utah), authors of a separate investigation resolution.

Under the resolution, a committee of five senators and five representatives would be set up, with $50,000 provided for expenses.

Earlier, all senate groups seeking an investigation of the Tennessee Valley Authority agreed on a new resolution providing for a congressional inquiry.

Senator Bridges (R-NH) an author of one TVA investigation resolution, told reporters he and Senator King (D-Utah), co-author had agreed with Senators Barkley (D-Ky) and Norris (Ind-Neb), authors of other resolutions on the form of a new proposal.

Bridges said the compromise resolution would include eight of 23 charges which he originally had make against the TVA and which Barkley and Norris had omitted from their proposals.

"The way is all clear now for an investigation," Bridges said.

He added that it had not been finally determined whether the investigation should be made by both the House and senate or by the senate alone, but that in either event, the compromise draft of the resolution would stand.

Want House Represented.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP)—Administration leaders appealed to the senate today to include house members in any committee investigating the Tennessee Valley Authority.

They predicted overwhelming approval for a carefully-worded resolution in which democratic leader Barkley, of Kentucky proposed that fice members of each chamber be appointed to hold public hearings on the policies which split the TVA directorare.

Before the vote on Barkley's resolution, the other three senators who have proposed TVA inquiries conferred with him in an attempt to agree on just what the investigation should cover.

They were Senator Norris (Ind-Neb), who first asked for an inquiry by the federal trade commission, and Senators Bridges (R-NH) and Kinw (D-Utah), opponents of TVA who wanted to include in the resolution a long list of accusations against the board members.

Daiches Optical Department Being Greatly Improved

Completion of new quarters for his optical department was announced Friday by Sam Daiches, local jeweler and optometrist.

New reception quarters have been provided immediately adjoining the new refraction room, all completely equipped with the latest equipment. Some additional equipment is expected within a few days, and Mr. Daiches said he planned to hold "open house" at that time.

GOVERNOR ALLRED URGES OBSERVANCE OF GOOD FRIDAY

AUSTIN, March 25.—(AP)—Governor James V. Allred today called upon all Christians in Texas to commemorate Good Friday with prayer, urging business houses to join with state departments in a cessation of activities April 15 between 12 p. m. and 3 p. m. for fitting observances.

His proclamation follows:

Again we are reminded that we should give praise to Him who gave His all for the redemption of the souls of men, as we near the anniversary of the day upon which Our Savior Jesus Christ made the supreme sacrifice so that we mighht have eternal life.

The life of Jesus brings to mind the great comfort and blessings to be gained on this sacred day through faith, hope and prayer.

In remembrance of Him and this anniversary,

Now, therefore I, James V. Allred, governor of the State of Texas, do hereby set aside and proclaim the Friday before Easter Sunday, April 15th, 1938, as Good Friday in Texas, and I call upon all Christians to reverently observe and commemorate this day with prayers and other fitting ceremonials recalling the sacrifice made by the Son of Man on that historic day in ancient times when His blood was shed for the world he loved.

I further urge that business houses join with state departments in a cessation of all activities on Good Friday between the hours of 12 and 3 p. m. and urge everyone to take advantage of this pause from official duties for prayer to the observance of this day through mediation and prayer, in holy remembrance of the crucifixion of our Lord and to reflect upon the greatest message of love mortals have ever heard—"For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

CORSICANA, TEX., MAR. 29, 1938

THE COMMON MAN'S CHANCE

An American foreign correspondent who has lived for years in the Danubian region returned to the United States recently for a visit. He observes many things about his country which the citizen who has stayed here right along often overlooks. Writing in the Christian Science Monitor, this observer tells of his sharpest impressions on his return.

First was the fact that this was "everybody's America." How different peoples have come here and, without losing their own characteristics entirely, have become Americans, seemed to him to be illustrated by the names of men and women who are doing things—mayors, governors, police chiefs, composers, popular writers, star athletes and all the rest. The names are Italian, Scandinavian, southeastern European, Teutonic, Slavic, and so on. The individuals are Americans.

He was impressed further by the fact that democracy is operating, that the people still run the country and in the main do their own governing. It is not so in Fascist, Nazi and Communist lands.

Again, the returned American was impressed—even in this time of recession—by the flood of this world's goods available to so many of us, luxuries and conveniences which are entirely missing in a large part of Europe and which only rulers and the very wealthy even hope to have over there.

He does not deceive himself that America is anybody's Utopia. There are serious wrongs here which must be righted, reforms to be started, problems to be solved. But they will be acccomplished by a system that is "giving the common men immeasurably more than they ever had before."

THE MORNING AFTER.

The marching, heiling and flag-waving in Austria finally came to an end and the grim business of setting up the new manner of life began. It had really begun before, but did not become obvious until the political anschluss was effected.

Today Austria wakes up with a great big headache. The hysterical, emotional intoxication of the three days of Hitler's presence produced its sure reaction of gloom and depression. The world reads now of suicides, despair, human tragedy beyond healing.

Nazism neglected no smallest detail in the regulation of human life. Austria's famous National Library is put quickly under a Nazi commissioner. All women's organizations are abolished. The Salzburg Festival Theater, the Opera and another state theater exist no more as indpendent artistic forces. Seven musical organizations, including the great Vienna Symphony Orchestra, are to be purged of every non-nazi element.

The worst thing of all in this morning-after headache is the suddenly created suspicion. Neighbor dreads neighbor. Spies are feared in every social group, even in the home

This situation cannot be permanent, if the human spirit has the capacity for survival and revolt it has shown in other ages, but it will take many years and much readjusting to restore sanity to this section of a world gone mad.

There are firing squads in Germany and Italy, too, but they're not advertised.

JUST FOLKS

SPRING SIGN.

Again the robin
Heralds spring,
The golfer thinks
About his swing.
And where the yellow
Jonquils dance
The golfer thinks
Of grip and stance.

The verdant leaf
Adorns the trees;
The fields and woods
Are fair to see,
But where the grass
Is growing tall
The early golfer
Hunts a ball.

The skies are blue
The days grow long;
The forests ring
With joyous song,
But plodding toward
The distant green
Some bow-legged golfer
Spoils the scene.

MAN'S INHUMANITY

The insurgent bombing of the ancient and populous city of Barcelona on March 17 was perhaps the most savage and ruthless attack in its thousand years of history, and perhaps the most futile, for it only strengthened its inhabitants' determination to resist. Here are some bits of the news report:

"It is worse than the front," the people said. That is, the enemy treated the women, children and other civilians worse than if they had been fighting men.

There were ten bombing raids in 24 hours. It was estimated that 600 people were killed and about twice as many wounded. Hundreads of the wounded were trapped in shattered buildings, while rescuers dug for hours to save them and recover the dead.

Many thousands took refuge in the subways, spending the night there, and large numbers of women and children hid in shellcraters. More than 200 people were killed or wound when a bomb struck a subway entrance.

The attack seemed directed largely at the populous residence section, destroying alike tenements, hotels and business buildings. It was impossible for all the fire companies to deal with the many conflagrations started.

Between explosions the crying of frightened families in their homes was heard everywhere on the streets.

This sort of thing seems to have become established procedure in modern warfare. This is what our so-called human race does, at the apex of modern civilization.

No race of animals deals so with its own kind. If we don't stop, the more kindly animals will inherit the earth.

ELASTIC NAVAL PROGRAM.

Referring to the government's big navy program, a newspaper which usually supports the New Deal says:

"Before voting final approval on any naval bill, senators and representatives should ask themselves a few questions. Do we need a gigantic navy to fight Britain? The obvious answer is no. Then why is it necessary to plan a fleet which would be two or three times as powerful as the combined navies of any two other existing powers?"

It is a timely question and a logical attitude. Few Americans are convinced that we really need such a vast navy. Probably few want it.

Does Congress really want it? Does the President really want it? All anyone can say with assurance is that the government wants authority to build it, and some money to start the job.

The authority rather than the construction may be the main thing. In other words, this may be a poker game rather than a building game War fleets that are "authorized" do not have to be built, and indeed cannot be built until enough money is appropriated for them. There are hints that the authorization is mostly for the moral effect on potential enemies.

It may be all right to improve and complicate bridge, but when they start making new rules for poker an old-fashioned American gets red-headed.

A Step in the Right Direction

AMERICAN FESTIVALS

The last tedious days of winter are made more bearable by the plans for spring which precede its visible arrival. The individual gardener begins early with his seed catalogs. Communities also begin with clean-up campaigns for the practical side and flower festivals for the esthetic. The latter seem to be gaining in number and in public interest.

One of the early festivals of this sort is the annual Puyallup Valley Daffodil Festival in Washington when the whole countryside blooms with cheerful golden flowers and the people turn out to enjoy them. Holland, Mich., has its tulip display even as the land from which its settlers came and its name was taken. In another part of of Michigan there is the cherry blossom festival, when the orchards from which come so many cherry pies and jars of cherry preserves are in full flower.

Down through the Shenandoah Valley every spring goes a great caravan of motorists eager to witness the beauty of that region's spring flowering. In many parts of the country there are other beauties—apple and peach orchards, wild areas of exquisite laurel and rhodondron, cultivated roses, acres of other loveliness.

Texas offers the dogwood and bluebonnets for the pleasure of thousands.

Most of these beautiful features have been with us a long time, but it is in recent years only that we have paid so much attention to them. The automobile, the good highway and more leisure have created in America both the opportunity and the will for such enjoyment.

HAPPY MINORITIES

Quoting Herr Hitler, as he spoke to an American correspondent in his Austrian triumph:

"If I had not come here there would have been bloodshed instead of rejoicing, tears instead of joy. Many have been in prison. Some have been hanged for their political opinions. Well, we have put an end to all that. I have prevented the majority from revenging itself on its oppressors. It is a work of peace that I have performed here.

"I hope that all nations will recognize from what has happened in Austria the folly of oppressing their national minorities."

Even as he spoke, Austrians who had opposed the merger of their country with Germany were being jailed for no other crime than patriotism. Jews were being beaten. Jewish stores were being picketed by Nazi soldiers. Next day the persecution of political and racial minorities in Austria began in earnest. They were robbed and mobbed and expelled from their professions. No member of a proscribed "national minority" was allowed even to take his money with him when he went into forced exile.

The world's so upset by a number of things, that sensible men wouldn't want to be kings.

FRED M. ALLISON NAMED ON COMMITTEE FOR BIG OIL SHOW

TULSA, March 26.—(Spl.)—Fred M. Allison, drilling contractor, of Corsicana, Texas, has been asked to serve on the drilling contractor's committee of the tenth International Petroleum Exposition, according to an announcement made by C. F. Camp, secretary and treasurer of the Arrow Drilling company of Tulsa and chairman of the committee.

"The $10,000,000 May 14 to 21, oil show at Tulsa, Oklahoma, 50 per cent larger in exhibit facilities and exhibitors is to be the largest show of any single industry ever held. Approximately 402 of the 600 firms contracting for exhibit space will devote all or a portion of their displays to new or improved equipment of interest to the drilling contractors. More heavy equipment is being displayed and equipment in actual operation will be seen at the May show. Visitors will see portable equipment and standard equipment actually making hole on the grounds of the exposition this year," said Camp.

Allison has been asked to help acquaint the members of the oil industry in his section of the nation with the benefits and importance of the Exposition to the oil industry, said Camp.

KERENS BUSINESS DISTRICT FLAMES DO $3,000 DAMAGE

KERENS, March 26.—(Spl.)—Due to the alertness of Kerens nightwatchman, Robert Cunningham, a fire which would have probably destroyed the entire business district of Kerens, was discovered almost as it started at 1 a. m. Tuesday.

The fire which was believed to have started when rats got into matches stored on the balcony of the Kerens Cash Grocery, in the middle of the Kerens business district, caused damage estimated at $3000 to the building, stock and fixtures.

The fire practically ruined a piano recently purchased by the Kerens Lions club, which has been meeting in the dining room of the cafe on the balcony. Thirty chairs were also damaged. Slight smoke damage was sustained by the Nicholson Smart Shop, next door.

CORN UP AND SOME COTTON PLANTED IN NAVARRO COUNTY

Much corn is up and growing fine and a considerable amount of cotton has been planted, A. H. Holloway, constable at Kerens, reported in Corsicana Friday afternoon. Mr. Holloway also stated that in a number of instances, cotton has already come up.

Oats are looking fine but many fields are rank and some fear is expressed frequently the danger of the oats falling later due to rankness and rust.

The mild weather and continued seasonal rains have caused fast growth of all gardens, crops, etc., at this season. Unless inclement weather and cold snaps are encountered, all vegetation anl crops are away to an exceptionally early start this spring.

Special Feature Wrestling Arena Thursday Night

A feature of the wrestling show Thursday night was a wrestle royal with the participants blind-folded. Those in the event were Clete Duvall, Topeka, Kan.; Lee Metcalf, Fort Worth; Tuffy Watson, Seattle, Wash.; Benny Matthews, Beaumont; Toby Smith, Dallas, and Otis Hedrick, Fort Worth. The first two eliminated appeared in the first match of the evening; the second two later became the semi-finalists while the final survivors of the feature participated in the main match.

Otis Hedrick and Benny Matthews engaged in a rough affair with both dealing out misery and punishment in liberal packages, the match ending in a draw.

Duvall and Watson met in the second affair. Duvall won the decision by applying the top body pin after roughing his opponent.

Smith dealt much rough treatment to Metcalf in the third match although he did not pin his smaller apponents shoulders to the mat.

CITY SCHOLASTIC CENSUS WILL BE COMPLETED MARCH 31

The scholastic enumeration of the Corsicana Independent School District, required by law and supervised by the board of education, will be completed by Thursday, March 31, according to an announcement Monday by Superintendent W. H. Norwood of the Corsicana public schools.

If any child has been omitted from the census, his parents are requested to communicate with the superintendent's office, phone 600.

The enumeration is of vital importance to the welfare of the schools for next year. For every child counted the local schools will receive a state apportionment of $22 with which to carry on next years' work.

The scholastic enrollment last year was 3,723 with 334 transfers.

It is the desire of the board of education to have every child of proper age who is a resident of the city of Corsicana listed in the enumeration. The enumeration has no connection with the state compulsory attendance law, Superintendent Norwood said.

Each year it has been found that in four ways some children have been inadvertently omitted from the rolls and as it has been previously requested it is hoped that omission coming under the following headings will be reported to the superintendent's office:

1. Those who may have been out of the city during the census taking.

2. Those moving to Corsicana since March 1.

3. Children who will not be 18 years old on or before Sept. 1, and because of graduation and other reasons are not now in school.

4. Children under six years old who are not now in school, but intend to enter next year, because they will be six years old on or before Sept. 1.

Children who do not live in the city but who are attending the Corsicana schools now or plan to attend next year must be enumerated in districts wherein they live and a transfer from the county superintendent's office must be requested before August 1.

Children being counted in the census are those who will be six and under 18 years of age on Sept. 1, 1938, and who are residents of the district on the first day of April. Children born on or before Sept. 1, 1920, or after Sept. 1, 1932, are not enumerated, Superintendent Norwood said.

SILVER

Herrera, which will undertake to operate the industry, completed its organization and named minor functionaries to help "normalize" production.

At the same time, it was announced that the government is preparing to turn over the national railways, which Cardenas expropriated in June, 1937, to 48,000 workers for operation.

The 8,526-mile railway system, nationalized in the same fashion as it being tried with the oil industry, but with far less protect, has been operated since the middle of December by an autonomous railway department headed by Antonio Madrazo.

The change of operation by workers unions was expected to be nominal, although details of the transfer were not given out.

Hull to Meet With Oil Representatives

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(AP)—The treasury decided today to stop buying silver from Mexico, only a few hours before Secretary Hull arranged a meeting with representatives of four American oil companies whose properties in Mexico had been seized by the Cardenas government.

Although Secretary Morgenthau's announcement of the silver suspension did not refer to the Mexican expropiration of oil wells the treasury action was interpreted in Mexico City as a reprisal.

"In view of the decision of the government of the United States to re-examine certain of its financial and commercial relationships with Mexico," Morgenthau sad, "the treasury will defer continuation of the monthly silver purchase arrangements with Mexico until further notice."

Monetary experts immediately watched for possible effects on the world silver price.

They said this price, which had moved up and down violently in previous years, was held at about 45 cents an ounce in 1936 and 1937 largely because of American purchases abroad.

Mexico was the world's largest silver producer in 1937, and the United States started out this year to buy 5,000,000 ounces of the white metal from her every month.

This program and similar arrangements with Canada and China replaced a London silver agreement, which expired January 1. That pact among eight nations was intended to hold back rapid changes in silver price. The United States carried the burden, buying 14 times its quota in four years.

At the time London agreement died, government economists predicted the world silver price would not be affected because the United States virtually controlled the price herself.

Withdrawal of the silver purchases, some close observers said, might prompt Mexico to compensate American oil companies more quickly and more fully than it might otherwise do.

Chinese Dollar Drops.

SHANGHAI, March 28.—(AP)—The Chinese dollar today dropped to a low of 22 United States cents, then rallied and closed at 23.5 cents as the Chinese government at Hankow and foreign banks in Shanghai remained at odds over the foreign exchange situation.

Mexican Dollar Drops

SHANGHAI, March 28.—(AP)—Foreign exchange rates crashed here today when foreign banks dropped merchant rates on the Mexican dollar from 29 to 24 3-4 in an effort to draw merchant rates and outside market rates closer together.

This action means the breaking of a gentlemen's agreement between foreign banks and the ministry of finance not to sell Mexican dollars below 29 for United States dollars. The purpose of this agreement was to maintain currency stability.

American banks told the Associated Press that the finance ministry's system of alloting exchange was chiefly responsible for the action.

E. Coughlin, Detroit radio priest urging his listeners to oppose the bill.

Johnson and Borah Opponents on Bill

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(AP)—The senate's two great "isolationists"—William E. Borah (R.-Idaho) and Hiram W. Johnson (R.-Calif.)—took opposite sides of a major issue today for one of the few times in their long careers.

The issue was the administration's billion-dollar naval expansion program, just starting through senate channels after its passage by the house.

Borah said he would oppose the bill vigorously, but Johnson announced he would support it.

Thus when the "big navy" measure brings its expected oratorical explosion on the senate floor early next month, legislators and galleryites will have the unusual opportunity of hearing the two veterans of the successful fights against American participation in the League of Nations and the world court argue against each other.

But the roaring "lion of Idaho" and the thundering "Bull Mooser" of California treat their disagreement lightly.

"It's just a difference in viewpoint as to what constitutes a defense navy," Borah explained. "Both of us oppose using the navy to implement foreign policy."

To Johnson, however, a big navy seems "absolutely essential" for protection of the west coast. He agreed with Borah that there was no difference in their objectives.

House Wants Probe TVA Situation

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(AP)—House friends and foes of the Tennessee valley authority united today in asking the house rules committee to approve legislation for a congressional investigation—thorough, fair and factual—of the government's huge power enterprise.

Representative Maverick (D-Tex) long a friend of TVA, warned against a possibility that the inquiry might develop into what he called a "purge trial."

House Republican Leader Snell said a senate-approved resolution for an investigation was so broad that it would prolong the inquiry unnecessarily.

Maverick said the investigation probably will be as important as the Teapot Dome inquiry, "although," he added, "I don't want to compare it with that."

"It is a matter of extreme importance to the democratic party," he continued. "Its self-respect, integrity and purposes are at stake."

The Texan said he thought it would be impossible to obtain an investigating committee made up of men without convictions.

"This is to be a factual investigation," he said, "and I don't see any reason why men with convictions should not go on it."

WPA Projects For Texas.

Washington, March 28.—(AP)—Members of the Texas congressional delegation received notification the President had approved works progress administration projects as follows: For the improvement of city-owned gas distribution system at Corpus Christi by extending gas lines and incidental work, $21,875.

Representative Kleberg, Democrat of Corpus Christi, said no taxes or assessments would be levied to cover the amount of federal funds expended on the project.

Conference Arranged.

WASHINGTON, March 28—(AP)—Representative Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Texas) said he had arranged a conference between directors of the lower Colorado River Authority and Commissioner Frank T. Bell of the bureau of fisheries to discuss the possible establishment of fish hatcheries near Buchanan Lake.

A tentative date of April 4 has been set for the discussion, Johnson said.

The conference was agreed to by Bell after Johnson had submitted a detailed memorandum outlining the need for hatcheries in that area to stock the five lakes along the Colorado river in the vicinity of Austin being formed by the construction of flood control dams.

Flat Income Tax Rate

WASHINGTON, March 28.—(AP)—The senate finance committee approved today application of an 18 per cent flat tax rate on net income of insurance companies.

The committee already has approved such a rate for corporations generally. The house bill fixed a 16 per cent rate on insurance companies. The existing rate is 15 per cent.

Committee members said that mutual insurance companies other than life would be re-surveyed later to ascertain whether they should receive special treatment and that special treatment would be allowed all companies having net income of $25,000 or less.

TRIUMVIRATE

During the 12 years he was active in Texas politics he never backed a loser.

House's first Texas political connection was with the renomination campaign in 1892 of James Stephen Hogg, considered by many the greatest governor in Texas history. His contemporaries said he was chiefly responsible for the organization which nominated Hogg for a second term over George Clark of Waco in perhaps the bitterest campaign this state ever has seen.

Two years later he was one of the managers of the successful gubernatorial campaign of Charles A. Culberson, who later was to serve a quarter of a century in the United States senate. He helped Culberson obtain re-election, then was one of the leaders in successful fights for the nomination as governor as Joseph D. Sayers and S. W. T. Lanham. His friends felt he might have been governor himself had he desired.

Enters National Politics.

After Lanham, House paid little attention to the fortunes of Texas gubernatorial candidates. He was anxious to transfer his activities to the national stage. For many months before the national democratic convention which nominated Woodrow Wilson in 1912, he was active in many parts of the country in Wilson's behalf. After Wilson's election more than a quarter of a century ago he rarely came back to Texas.

It is a far cry from the hard-riding, straight-shooting Texans of the roaring eighties to the Edward M. House who influenced a nation's policies but House was little different in his early manhood from the rest of the state's "rough and ready" residents.

Thrown into continual association with men who killed, from necessity or otherwise, he was skilled in the art of handling a "six-gun" and kept one handy for emergency use. Son of a prosperous Houston business man, he had ben reared in the turbulent days immediately after the war between the states and could not remember "the time when I began to ride and shoot."

Bill McDonald His Friend.

Dr. Charles Seymour of Yale, who arranged Colonel House's papers in book form, pointed out that one of House's warmest Texas friends was the picturesque ranger captain, Bill McDonald, "whose career he felt to be so typical of the Texas of those days that he could not rest until it was put into a book."

"I knew personally many of the famous desperadoes," House once said, "men who had killed so many they had almost ceased to count their victims."

He asserted that whenever he went to his Southwest Texas ranch he never was certain he would return home. "Feuds always were going on," he said, "and in some of these our ranch was more or less involved."

House recalled that dueling was frequent on his plantation in Fort Bend and Brazoria counties. At one time in Colorado, he himself would have killed a man in another five seconds, he said, if a third party had not intervened.

Allred Deeply Shocked.

AUSTIN, March 28.—(AP)—Governor James V. Allred, hunting in Southwest Texas, today ordered capitol flags lowered to half staff and issued the following expression regarding the death of Col. E. M. House:

"I am deeply shocked and grieved, as all who knew him must be, at the passing of Colonel House. It has been my personal good fortune to count him as a friend, and, on occasion, I have sought his advice and found it good.

"The Colonel was one of the race of giants which has made Texas the great state it is today. We can never hope to live up to the standards set by such men as House and Hogg; we can only strive to follow their splendid examples as men and as statesmen."

House Modest and Able.

AUSTIN, March 28.—(AP)—C. V. Terrell, state railroad commission chairman, recalled today that when Colonel Edward M. House was active in Texas politics he was quiet but nonetheless effective. Terrell served in the state senate before House left Texas.

"He was a great man—modest, courageous and able."

Corporation Court.

Two charges of intoxication and disturbing the peace, seven of intoxication, one of failing to stop after an accident, one of running over a stop sign, one of disturbing the peace, and two o intoxication and affray brought offenders into the Corsicana Corporation Court Monday morning as a result of arrests by city officers over the week-end.

CASEY STENGEL IS VICTIM OF BOSTON CULTURE AT LAST

By GAYLE TALBOT

BRADENTON, Fla., March 28.—(AP)—It's a tragic announcement to have to make, but Casey Stengel has joined up with the conservative Boston set and isn't funny any more. The only comic crack he made in a half hour's earnest conversation was that his Bees might win the National League pennant.

The man who used to wow them over in Brooklyn sits there now as dignified as a kid wearing his first stiff collar and insists upon discussing such trivial items as batting and fielding averages and pitching possibilities. He even made a point of having names pronounced correctly. Once he said, mistily:

"I can't tell you how much I appreciate the way these folks have treated me since I took over the club. I haven't got a lot of background like some managers."

He referred, no doubt, to such old line, rock-ribbed landed gentry as Burleigh Grimes, of the Missouri Grimeses, and to Frankie Frisch, thg Bronx boulevardier. In time, of course, Casey will learn that Burleigh and Frankie are just as democratic as anybody.

Gets in Dugout.

During the Bees' exhibition games Casey doesn't even get out on the coaching lines, but sits back sedately in the dugout and makes motions just like Connie Mack, except that he doesn't use a score card, yet. Only once in the course of a game did he go out and argue modestly with the base umpire. He said he was feeling all right, too.

Contributing to the new gravity undoubtedly is the fact that Casey is more or less on the spot in taking over the Bees after the miracles they performed under Bill McKechnie last year. With an old-folks pitching staff and not a .300 hitter in the line-up, they finished fifth.

Now Casey has the same club, except that it's a year older, and hes' bound to feel the strain. If the Bees finish worse than fifth, Boston fans won't be pleased with Casey. And if they do finish as high as fifth again, this writer, for one, will be greatly astonished.

SUPREME COURT

Among other things, it would bar the companies from using the mails or other instrumentalities of interstate commerce unless they registered with the securities commission.

Enforcement of this provision has been held up pending a final supreme court ruling.

Lower Court Upheld.

WASHINGTON, March 28—(AP)—The supreme court ruled today the national labor relations act was applicable to the Santa Cruz Fruit Packing Company of Oakland, Calif., which ships less than 40 per cent of its product into interstate commerce.

In a decision delivered by Chief Justice Hughes, the tribunal affirmed a ruling by the ninth circuit court of appeals holding the company subject to the legislation guaranteeing collective bargaining to workmen and prohibiting unfair labor practices.

Anti-Circular Law.

WASHINGTON, March 28—(AP)—The supreme court ruled today an ordinance of Griffin, Ga., requiring persons distributing circulars, or advertisements, to obtain a license from the city manager violated constitutional guarantees of freedom of the press.

Chief Justice Hughes delivered the court's opinion that the ordinance "is invalid on its face."

"Whatever the motive which induced its adoption," the chief justice asserted, "its character is such that it strikes at the very foundation of the freedom of the press by subjecting it to license and censorship. x x x

"Legislation of the type of the ordinance in question would restore the system of license and censorship in its baldest form."

Court Has Busy Day.

WASHINGTON, March 28—(AP)—Among other actions, in a busy day, the supreme court today:

Held constitutional New York City legislation imposing a 3 per cent gross income tax on utilities to aid the unemployed.

Refused to review a decision of the Sixth Circuit court of appeals holding unconstitutional the Kerr-Smith act to regulate the production of tobacco.

Agreed to review a contention by a group of Kansas state senators and representatives that states no longer have the right to vote on the proposed constitutional amendment to outlaw child labor.

Consented to pass on litigation brought by three Boston men in an effort to obtain a ruling on whether evidence obtained by tapping intrastate wires was admissible in federal criminal trials.

Refused to interfere with a 99-year sentence imposed upon Roger Toughy after his conviction in connection with the kidnaping of John Factor, in Chicago, in 1933.

Fourteen Smith County Prisoners Escaped Monday

TYLER, March 28.—(AP)—Fourteen Smith county prisoners escaped this morning from a moving truck in which 39 were being taken to work from the county farm near Lindale, 16 miles northwest of here.

The driver, Johnnie Gimble, reported the prisoners broke a window in the rear of the truck and jumped out. He said he counted heads four miles from the farm and discovered the escape.

Regular county farm prison guards began combing the countryside. They watched highways and the railroad yards near Lincoln, and notified police in nearby East Texas towns to be on the watch for the fugitives. No posse had been organized.

E. W. Gimble, farm superintendent, said the fugitives included several addicted to narcotics, some long termers and two former state convicts.

Driver Gimble said he was unaware the prisoners were slipping out of the truck one by one until hailed by aged "Dad" Collier, who was waiting on the truck for aid after his automobile had run out of gasoline. Collier said he saw the prisoners dropping from the truck as it slowly pulled up a hill.

BODY OF FORMER CORSICANAN BEING SENT FOR BURIAL

Mrs. Minnie Williams, about 90 years of age, died in Los Angeles, Calif., Friday. The body left Los Angeles Monday morning and is scheduled to arrive in Corsicana Thursday morning at 11 o'clock. Funeral services will probably be held from the chapel of the Corley Funeral Home Thursday afternoon. The rites will be conducted by Rev. Roy A. Langston, pastor of the First Methodist church.

Surviving are three sons, John Williams, George Williams, and Frank Williams, all of California; two daughters, Mrs. Hattie Stiff, California, and Mrs. Alice Crossland, Houston; a number of grandchildren and other relatives, including three nephews, Ed White, Fred White and George Whytte, all of Corsicana.

Crisler Starts Job Rebuilding Michigan Athletic Prestige

ANN ARBOR, Mich., March 28.—(AP)—Herbert O. (Fritz) Crisler, returning to Western Conference football coaching ranks after a six-year absence, called 115 University of Michigan varsity candidates to spring practice today.

Crisler, who restored Princeton to football eminence after leaving the Minnesota coaching post in 1932, is about to tackle the same sort of problem at Michigan. He isn't downhearted about the prospect.

"I didn't come here to lose," he told an alumni group recently.

As a starting point for his announced plan to rebuild the Michigan Wolverines, once the "champions of the west," from "the group up," Crisler has available 18 letter men from Harry G. Kipke's 1937 eleven which won four games and lost four.

Kipke's contract was not renewed, and Michigan athletic authorities, casting about for a "trouble shooter" to tune up their football machine, selected Crisler on the basis of his success in similar roles at Minnesota and Princeton.

Powell Forty-two Club Entertained In Washam Home

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie McFadden and Mrs. Esther Washam entertained the Powell Forty-two club at Mrs. Washam's home in Powell on Tuesday at 7:45 p. m. The rooms were charmingly decorated with spring flowers, including sprays of locust blossoms, Bluebonnets and Indian paintbrush, inn wall vases, held back the curtains, and the Easter motif was carried out in gaily decorated table covers and napkins. Angel food cake and ice cream were served at 11.

Miss Katherine Kenner made a high score of 3619, the highest so far in the club's history; Tom Kenner made highest for the men, 3221.

Miss Bess Johnston was a recruit to the club this week.

Refreshments were served by Misses Mary Sue Washam, Harriet Emreson, Gloria McFadden, and Elizabeth Melton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Melton will have the meeting at their home next Tuesday at 7:45.

Soft Living Robs Major Leaguers Says Veteran Campaigner

NASHVILLE, Tenn., March 28.—(AP)—Soft living is robbing present day major league pitchers of their chances to equal the feats of the old timers, says big Fred Toney, National league mound ace of two decades ago.

"Pitchers today don't do as much as they should," he claims, "because they can't. They are soft. They can't take it.

"Look back over the records and you'll find that all the great pitchers of baseball—Cy Young, Mordecai Brown, Christy Mathewson, Walter Johnson, to name a few—were men who had to work hard all their lives."

Toney retired in 1927 after 16 years in the National loop.

TWO MEN ROBBED SATURDAY NIGHT; YOUTH ARRESTED

J. M. Patterson and J. W. McDougal, both employed by The Texas Company, with offices at 510 State National Bank building, were robbed of $18 Saturday night about 8 o'clock and a 17-year-old boy was arrested fifteen minutes later by Police Chief Bruce Nutt and Officer Allyn York.

Patterson and McDougal are reported to have left Patterson's residence, 1555 West Fifth avenue and walked to their automobile parked in the drive way. A masked robber using a realistic toy pistol, commanded their money and his orders to hand over their wallets were compiled with. After taking the currency from the billfolds, the victims were allowed to keep their purses.

The accused youth was arrested by the officers at the intersection of Twentieth streeet and the Cotton Belt railrond tracks. The money, toy pistol and folded handkerchief allegedly used as a mask were found on the person of the boy, Police Chief Nutt reported Sunday. Chief Nutt also said the youth had signed a statement concerning the incident.

The prisoner was turned over to the county authorities and the case will probably be presented the Navarro county grand jury next week.

PRICE OF SILVER REDUCED MONDAY BY U. S. TREASURER

REDUCTION TODAY WAS THE FIRST PRICE CHANGE IN NEARLY TWO YEARS

WASHINGTON, March 28—(AP)—The treasury reduced today from 45 to 44 cents per ounce its price for foreign produced silver.

The reduction was the first change in the treasury's price for foreign silver in nearly two years, and followed a break of slightly more than a cent in the London silver market today, because of fears that the United States' decision to discontinue purchases of Mexican silver might presage an abandonment of its stabilizing influence on world silver prices.

Heretofore the world's largest customer for silver, the United States treasury, has virtually dictated the value of silver for more than two years.

Officials did not explain the reduction.

Previously, the announcement of the decision with respect to Mexican silver had been connected principally in speculation by observers with that country's expropriation of American oil properties.

Executives of four American oil companies conferred with Secretary of State Hull about the expropriation.

The oil men asked the official support of the United States government in their effort to have the expropriation modified.

The oil executives were Walter Treagle, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey; W. S. Farish, president; Eugene Holman, president of the Huasteca Petroleum Company, a Standard Oil subsidiary; Judge Frank Feuille, representing the Standard Oil Company of California; Albert E. Watts, president of the Penn-Mex Fuel Company, and Judge James W. Reid, representing the Consolidated Oil Company and the Mexican Sinclair Petroleum Corporation.

Beauty Diary of Edna Kent Forbes

BEAUTIFUL EYELASHES

You may have beautiful lashes if you do what is described today by Miss Forbes in her diary.

Long eyelashes add so much to the beauty of the eyes that every woman who is interested in cultivating her possibilities should try to improve her lashes. It is such an easy thing to do, too, for all that is needed is to get the blood circulating along the edge of the eyelids where the lashes grow. One cannot massage along the eyelids, not to amount to anything, but the lashes may be pulled which stretches the eyelids, then a quick contraction, as one lets go of the lashes again. The blood rushes to the edge of the lids along which are the roots of the lashes. A number of lashes are caught together, grasped between thumb and forefinger. The tugging continues along the lids, and both upper and under eyelids.

E. K. Forbes

If the lashes are dry, a little oil will help, and quite the best for this is lanolin thinned with a little castor oil. Be careful not to get any oil into the eyes, for it will cause a smarting sensation. Even an eyelash tonic is a doubtful thing to use, as no one should take any chances of irritating the eyes. Better build up your lashes through increasing the circulation at their roots.

Mascaras will make the lashes appear to be longer and thicker, and there is no reason why they should not be used for any evening makeup, for if the the eyes are impressive (and lashes will make them so) the entire face is made lovely through them.

Mrs. R. E.—When there are many pounds to be taken off, better start by having advice about it from your doctor. A treatment of some kind may be much better than a siege of dieting. If it is to be dieting, have the doctor also, so there is a check-up on your health. I am thinking now of the 60 pounds or more you are planning to slough off. You should take a year to do it, as five pounds a month will mean you are building firmness, as you lose the fatty tissue. Never take drugs, nor try stunts, as all may be done by the diet, and that is quite safe.

If you have any beauty problems you cannot solve, write for Edna Kent Forbes' three NEW beauty booklets: 1. "Fifteen Minutes a Day for Beauty," (2) "The Finer Points of Beauty," (3) "Eating And Bathing for Beauty." Send ten cents (in stamps) for EACH booklet, to pay for printing and handling and enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope (s.a.s.e.). Address Edna Kent Forbes, c-o this paper.

Kerens Pioneer Literary Club Met Friday Afternoon

KERENS, March 28.—(Spl.)—Mrs. Joe Sheppard and Mrs. Clete Owen entertained the Pioneer Literary club at the regular meeting Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the home of the former.

Beautiful arrangements of spring flowers from the lovely garden of Mrs. Owen, which is one of the beauty spots of Kerens, were used in th ereception suite.

During the business portion, presided over by the president. Mrs. E. M. Westbrook, plans were made for the club's annual guest day, at which time Mrs. Pearl Wallace Chappell of Dallas will speak, the hostesses are to be Mrs. Hugh Barlow, Mrs. Jack Fite and Mrs. Wade Price. The date was set tentativoly for April 15. Mrs. A. B. Keen, substituting for Mrs. E. H. Gray, was leader of the annual required program on "Health."

Roll call was answered with "Diseases I Have Not Had."

Mrs. Henry George Smith played as a piano number, "Romance."

Dr. G. H. Sanders was then presented as guest speaker, and gave an informative and interesting talk on "Cancer." This closed what was regarded as one of the most interesting meetings of the club year. A delectable salad plate was served to about twenty-five members.

Tuesday Forty-Two Club.

KERENS, March 28.—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Youngblood were host and hostess to the Tuesday Evening Forty-two club at their home Tuesday evening.

Four tables of players enjoyed the game until a late hour, when refreshments were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Elmin Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Miller, Mrs. Mossie Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Glass, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. White, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Ford, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Brister.

Prices rallied a few points further on spot houses buying but the advance attracted a little more Liverpool and Bombay selling on differences.

Just sold off from 8.84 to 8.78, leaving quotations 1 point net higher to 1 lower shortly after the first half hour. After losing another point or so under Bombay and Liverpool straddle selling on the differences, prices recovered somewhat on a moderate amount of trade price fixing which centered in nearby positions.

July sold up from 8.75 to 8.80, leaving prices by midday 2 points net higher to 1 lower.

New Orleans Cotton Steady.

NEW ORLEANS, March 28.—(AP)—Cotton futures opened steady today unchanged to two points net higher on trade buying induced by favorable foreign markets.

Trading was quiet in early dealings.

May contracts opened at 8.85, July at 8.91, Oct. at 8.97, Dec. at 8.99; Jan. at 9.00 and March at 9.03.

Prices continued to advance slowly during the morning under trade demand and covering against light offerings.

At the best the market was 3 to 5 points net higher but towards mid-session active months eased a point or so under profit taking by recent buyers.

May contracts sold at 8.88, July at 8.94, Oct. at 8.97 and Dec. at 8.99, or two to three points above the previous close.

Week-end political developments abroad and a desire on the part of operators to await further domestic business details served to restrict activity and hold fluctuations within a narrow range.

The turnover Saturday was 7,000 bales and open commitments 410,050 bales, a decrease of 700 bales from the previous week.

The market remained within the early range in the last hour and closed steady but unchanged to two points higher.

Exports for the day totaled 14,322 bales.

Rolls — Plum Jelly
Vanilla Ice Cream — Caramel Sauce
Sponge Cake
Coffee

Frozen Fruit Salad

1 cup diced pineapple	1 cup mayonnaise
1 cup diced peaches	1 cup whipped cream
1 cup diced pears	2 tablespoons lemon juice

Mix ingredients and freeze for four hours in a tray in the mechanical refrigerator.

This salad may also be frozen by packing it tightly in a mold, covering and burying it for four hours in five parts of chopped ice and one part of coarse salt.

Serve the salad on crisp lettuce and top with more mayonnaise.

Cheese Casserole
(With Mushrooms)

6 tablespoons butter	1 tablespoon chopped parsley
½ cup flour	3 cups milk
½ teaspoon salt	1 cup grated cheese
½ teaspoon paprika	1 cup browned mushrooms
¼ teaspoon celery salt	3 egg yolks
1 teaspoon minced onions	3 egg whites, beaten
1 tablespoon chopped pimientos

Melt butter and add flour. Mix and add seasonings and milk. Cook slowly and stir constantly until a creamy sauce forms. Add cheese, mushrooms and yolks. Beat two minutes. Fold in whites. Bake for 40 minutes in a pan of hot water in a moderately slow oven. Serve in pan used in baking.

Caramel Sauce

1½ cups granulated sugar	1 teaspoon vanilla
2 cups boiling water

Sprinkle half the sugar in an iron frying pan. Heat slowly and stir constantly with a wooden spoon until a light brown syrup forms. Add rest of sugar and water. Boil gently until the mixture thickens. Add vanilla and serve warm or cild.

Wheat Averages Higher

CHICAGO, March 28.—(AP)—Buying of wheat futures at Winnipeg attributed to foreigners did much to make Chicago wheat prices today average higher.

Upturns of wheat values here, however, came only after the market had touched the lowest levels in three years. Export purchases of North American wheat today as distinguished from futures were estimated as totaling only 300,000 bushels.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were unchanged to 1-2 cent higher compared with Saturday's finish. May 86 1-8 1-4, July 82 3-8 1-4, corn 1-2 cent off to 7-8 up, May 61 5-8 3-4, July 62 5-8 3-4, and oats unchanged to 1-8 down.

HOUSE

year, but he was strong enough Saturday to take a drive. Yesterday he remarked that he felt ill, and at midnight he began to sink.

Mrs. Auchincloss and her husband were summoned from their country home at Locust Valley, Long Island.

In accord with Colonel House's wishes, the funeral will be private. The body will be taken to his birthplace at Houston, where burial will be in the family plot.

Treasured Wilson Friendship

To the end, Edward Mandell House treasured the memory of his friendship with Woodrow Wilson.

The sudden lapsing of the extraordinary comradeship of the wartime president and "the little gray man from Texas," which had carried them through national and world crises together, was to Colonel House himself a "tragic mystery."

A letter written by the colonel to his friend, Professor Charles Seymour of Yale university who had compiled his papers, reveals the steadfastness of his devotion to the man he had served as chief counselor and "super-ambassador."

"There were many doors in the temples that men of old reared to their gods, to the sun and to the moon," he wrote: "Behind the innermost door dwelt the mysteries.

"And now you who have access to my most intimate papers ask me to unlock the innermost door, a door to which I have no key. My Separation from Woodrow Wilson, was, to me a tragic mystery that now can never be dispelled, for its explanation lies buried with him.

"Theories I have and theories they must remain. Never during the years we worked together was there an unkind or impatient word written or spoken, and this to me is anabiding consolation. While our friendship was not of long duration it was as close as human friendship can grow to be. To this, his letters and mine bear silent testimony.

"Until a shadow fell between us I never had a more considerate friend and my devotion to his memory remains and will remain unchanged."

Man of Mystery

To the general public Colonel House was a man of mystery, holding international secrets and wielding tremendous power as the counselor of President Wilson in the world war days and through the peace negotiations.

A native of frontier Texas who as a boy saw shooting affrays in the streets of Houston, he became the intimate of the world's great personages in the momentous period from 1914 to 1919. A familiar but unobtrusive figure in the capitals of the warring nations, he had on his calling list such names as Kaiser Wilhelm, Clemenceau, Lloyd George and King Albert of Belgium.

The quiet, self-effacing man when about his important missions abroad so unastentatiously had been President Wilson's confidential adviser and friend since his first election, a position novel in American political affairs. It was said by friends that the president relief upon his judgment and foresight more than he did upon those of anyone else.

"He is a man," said the president, "of remarkable ability. He can hold things off at arm's length and consider them and discuss them without being mixed up."

Wilson did not know House until the beginning of the canvass for his presidential nomination. Wilson then was governor of New Jersey and House was a power in Texas state politics. He was not yet in the public spotlight but his work in Texas had made him known to national leaders of the democratic party.

His father left him an inheritance of $20,000 a year which enabled him to pursue unhampered his interest in politics. State politics began to pall on him after he had helped bring about the election of four governors in succession and at least one United States senator. From his college days he had been keenly interested in national and international affairs. He was an avid reader of books on politics and economics.

Behind his studies was the idea of working out a distribution of national boundaries that would make civilization safe from war. Later he was to have an undreamed-of opportunity to expound his theories before the world's leading statesmen at Versailles and to embody some of them in the Covenant of the League of Nations.

House was born at Houston, Texas, July 26, 1858, the youngest of seven children. His forebears were of Dutch extraction, but had lived in England for many generations. His father arrived in Texas when it was still a section of the Mexican republic.

Young House was graduated friend a grammar school at New Haven, Conn., and attended Cornell university. In 1881 he married Miss Lucille Hunter of Austin. They had two daughters, Mrs. Randolph Tucker of Boston, Mass., and Mrs. Gordon Auchincloss of New York.

Silent Ally

House had been working for Wilson's presidential boom some time before the governor of New Jersey heard of his silent ally. The first time House's name was mentioned to Wilson is said to have been on Sunday in the summer of 1911 when Walter Hines Page, later ambassador to Great Britain, and Edward S. Martin, editor of "Life," motored to Princeton to discuss the political situation with Wilson. Page remarked: "By the way, Governor, a man named House is working for you down in Texas. You ought to meet him. He has ideas."

Wilson then wrote House telling him how much he appreciated his services and saying he would like to arrange a meeting with him. They met for the first time in Colonel House's room at the Hotel Gotham in New York and were friends from the moment they shook hands.

"We talked and talked," said House. "We knew each other for congenial souls at the very beginning."

Although he held no party post in the Wilson campaign, his perfecting of the organization and harmonizing of conflicting forces were rated a large factor in Wilson's victory. Friends said he had much to do with getting Bryan's support of Wilson at the Baltimore convention.

In the fall of 1912, House closed his home in Austin and took an apartment in New York so he could be near when Wilson wished to consult him. He chose New York, he said, because the climate agreed with him better than that of Washington and he wished to keep out of the swirl of political intrigue in the capital.

The visits of the president-elect began to attract public notice to House. Wilson often would disappear mysteriously from the capitol at Trenton and turn up again in the Pennsylvania station in New York bound for Colonel House's apartment at 114 East 53rd street. This apartment became famous as the "American No. 10 Downing street."

Urged to Enter Cabinet

His friends urged him to enter the president's cabinet but he said he felt he could be more useful if not tied down by the routine of a departmental job. He was credited, however, with selection of several members of the cabinet.

In the early days of the Wilson administration, Colonel House took a deep interest in the currency reform bill and Federal Reserve Bank legislation.

Three months before war broke out, Wilson secretly sent House to Europe to endeavor to convince the governments of Germany, Great Britain and France of the danger of the situation.

House believed the Kaiser was the one man, if any, who could control the destinies of Europe, and he was determined to make his greatest efforts with him. Before he started for Europe, he read evevrything he could find about the German emperor and talked with every person in the country who knew him at all well.

What the slim, mild-mannered gentleman from Texas said to the Potsdam potentate was never disclosed but House later indicated he was convinced the Kaiser was a less potent figure than some of his military leaders.

German, British and French statesmen declined to take seriously Colonel House's warning of the imminence of war. Later he himself was amazed at the rapidity with which it came.

This was the first of many trips made by House as a special envoy of President Wilson. Through him the president kept intimately informed on the trend of events behind the scenes in Europe.

When the armistice was proposed, House went to Versailles as the personal representative of Wilson and there opened the series of conferences with Lloyd George, Clemenceau and other allied statesmen. Later designated by the president as one of the American delegates to the peace conference, House because of his close intimacy with Wilson and his familiarity with the terms of the armistice, was to a large extent the medium of communicating the American viewpoint.

Although Wilson was present in person at Paris much of the detail of personal conference proceeded through House. The peace conference was the first occasion upon which House worked with the president in an official capacity. There for the first time observers noted a slight break in the apparently perfect confidence that had always existed between them.

Signs of Friction.

There were no signs of friction, however, when they parted at Paris on June 29, 1919, never to meet again. In August newspapers published a story about a personal breach between Wilson and House. On August 26, Colonel House cabled the president from London:

"Our annual falling out seems to have occurred. The foreign office received a cable the other day saying we were no longer on good terms and asking the prime minister and Balfour be informed. I am wondering where this particularly story originated."

President Wilson cabled this reply: "Am deeply distressed by malicious story about break between us and thank you for message about it. Best way is to treat it with silent contempt."

Four days afer sending his last cable to House, the president left on a tour in support of the League of Nations which ended in his collapse. Warned by cable of the president's breakdown, House planned to return and to testify before the senate foreign relations committee in behalf of the peace treaty. He too fell ill when he took ship and was in a state of collapse when he arrived in the United States.

Senate Opposed.

The senate was opposed to ratifying the treaty without reservations. Thus at the moment when the cause to which each had devoted his main interest was at stake, both lay ill, Wilson in Washington and House in New York.

House believed compromise was necessary but he refrained at first from pressing his contention owing to the president's illness. On November 24 he wrote the president urging him to accept the reservations. The letter was not answered. After House regained his health he was not called down to Washington by the sick man. Owing to the president's condition, he would not go to see him without a summons.

On three occasions after the defeat of the treaty in the senate House received notes from the president in answer to messages of good wishes. The president wrote: "Thank you for your letter. I appreciate your thought of me." But the letters were signed "sincerely and faithfully yours" and not "affectionately" as they had been for years.

Thus the firendship lapsed, never to be renewed.

Colonel House shied from personal publicity and declined public office. His retiring nature combined with the highly confidential character of the business he transacted for the president heightened the wall of mystery which concealed him from public comprehension.

Some politicians, unable to fathom his apparent lack of interest in personal preferment, wondered "what axe he had to grind." Indignant at such insinuations, he said:

Resented Insinuations.

"Men talk about my connections with Wall Street and the big banking houses. They seem to think I must get some sort of shady rake-off for my services. It is as pitiful as it is despicable.

"If I wished to make money out of my position I could do it easily and without going to Wall Street. With my knowledge of what is happening and what is going to happen, I am in a far better position than the powers of Wall Street themselves to take advantage of market conditions. But I have nothing to do with that sort of thing."

Friends of House explain that his hobby was to give his talents to his country and that he did not desire the usual reward of personal glory.

While his greatest services were of a diplomatic nature, he was an astute politician and keen judge of the abilities of men. In the 1912 presidential race when Roosevelt headed the "Bull Moose" ticket, Taft was the regular Republican choice and Wilson the Democratic nominee, House's advice was:

"Sit tight, make no mistakes and let Roosevelt elect us."

One of House's biggest moments was on Armistice Day when he cabled President Wilson from Paris:

"Aristocracy is dead. Long live democracy and its immortal leader. In this great hour my heart goes out to you in pride, admiration and love."

His advent in Texas politics was in 1892. He was a young man of independent means with a cultivated taste for affairs of state and no liking for business. He sought position of authority within the party and is credited with domination of its councils.

Texas Political Activity.

In the nominations and elections of Governors Hogg, Culberson, Sayers and Lanham he is said to have had potent influence. Without attempting to assume the role of the traditional political boss, he won his way by quiet persuasion and sagacity. His power was attributed to a faculty of suggesting or doing the right thing at the right moment.

House applied this same method in the first nomination and election of Wilson. Mostly by unobtrusive suggestion to the political managers, he assisted in the conduct of an efficient campaign.

At that time he was a slender, middle-aged man with a gray, close-cropped mustache, well dressed and very quiet of manner. He was considered well-to-do, his property consisting mainly of lands in Texas. He maintained three homes, in New York, Austin and Magnolia, Mass.

At Austin House moved in University of Texas circles from which later came three members of the Wilson cabinet, a fact which was frequently noted as significant of the influence of the quiet Texan.

Albert Sidney Burleson, postmaster general, was an Austin neighbor of Col. House. He had graduated from the University of Texas in that institution's first law class and had held local offices and been a member of the national house of representatives before he went into the cabinet.

Thomas Watt Gregory, an 1885 graduate of the university's law school, was practicing in Austin when he assumed leadership of the Wilson forces in Texas. He later was named as attorney general.

Houston and House.

David F. Houston, although chancellor of Washington University, St. Louis, Mo., when he was selected as secretary of agriculture, was formerly a professor of economics in the University of Texas and later president of the Texas A. and M. College. In 1905 he came back to Austin as president of the University of Texas and three years later went to St. Louis. He and House kept in close touch through the years and Houston told afterward that he was named for the cabinet before he had ever met Wilson personally.

Another Austinite, Sidney E. Mezes, who was Houston's successor as president of the University of Texas and later became hend of the College of the City of New York, was offered the post of federal commissioner of education, but he declined it. He was, however, in 1918-19 a member of some of the special commissions concerned with the peace conference in Europe.

But the relations between House and Wilson were much closer than even the selection of cabinet and other federal officials would indicate. One of the most illuminating incidents showing the Texan's influence was related in House's diary published after Wilson's death. It took place December 16, 1914, when the colonel told the president that establishment of good will between the United States and Latin-America was one of the pressing needs of the time.

"I suggested that he take a pencil and write the points to be covered," House related. "He took a pencil x x x He wished to know if there was anything else. I thought this was sufficient."

The scene finished with the president turning to his famous typewriter, copying the statement and handing it to the colonel. Soon it reached the proper places to be made a policy of the United States.

NEW YORK, March 28.—(AP)—James W. Gerard, wartime ambassador to Germany, said of the death of Col. Edward M. House:

"I regret his passing extremely. I had occasion to come into contact with him often and he was a powerful personality in his own quiet way. He visited Berlin several times while I was ambassador there and possessed not only the confidence of President Wilson but seeemed to be able to act for him."

Old Boys Back In Handbook Business As Track Closes

NEW ORLEANS, March 28.—(AP)—The old boys, with their pencils sharpened, were doing business at the old stands today.

What old boys?

The handbook boys.

The fair grounds race track ended its 113-day season yesterday and today the handbooks resumed business.

All during the spring, summer, and early fall handbooks, employing perhaps a thousand "callers," clerks and changemakers, do a tidy business in barrooms, barbershops, and so-called club rooms.

But when the fair grounds track opens the handbooks close and the boys disappear just as strangely as old razor blades.

THREE PERSONS ARE SERIOUSLY INJURED WICHITA FALLS AREA

EARLY MORNING STORM ALSO HURTS TWO NEAR ARDMORE EARLY SATURDAY

WICHITA FALLS, Mar. 26.—(AP)—High winds follower by rain, sleet and hail injured three persons in the Wichita Falls, Mankins and Dundee vicinities early today and wrought damage estimated at $100,000.

A small twister also struck the Lazy J ranch headquarters eight miles south of Electra, tearing down outbuildings and wrecking tents occupied by a crew drilling a well on the ranch. No injuries were reported in the ranch area.

Elsewhere over West Texas heavy rains were reported beneficial to crops and ranges.

The injured:

Charles Keys, who suffered severe shock when buried under wreckage of his one-room home at Wichita Falls. J. I. Keys, his father, escaped injury and summoned a refinery crew to extricate young Keys.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Twitty, who reside near Dundee in Archer county, suffered dislocated shoulders when the wind shattered their farm home and blew the macross a field. Four other occupants of the Twitty home escaped major injury, although they, too, were blown some distance by the storm.

Brick School Demolished.

At Mankins, Archer county, the three-teacher brick school building and the Thomas store were demolished. Nearly every other building in Mankins was damaged to lesser extent. There are fewer than 100 buildings in the town. No serious injuries were reported at Mankins, though some persons were reported bruised by flying fragments of buildings.

Three industrial plants at Wichita Falls were unroofed and residential roofs, chimneys and outbuildings were damaged.

Electra reported two and a half inches of rain since midnight. Hail did considerable damage in the vicinity but none was reported in rich farm areas north of there. Wheat and oats were helped.

Temperatures dropped over a wide area. The sharpest fall was reported at Haskell where a norther after a hard rain dropped temperature from yesterday's high of 100 to 49 today.

Rain also was reported at Coleman, Vernon, Paducah, Seymour, Quanah, Abilene, Merkel, Sweetwater, Albany, Nolan county, Eastland.

Shackelford county caught surface storage of stock water for the first time in two years on most ranches.

General rains for the state were forecast for tomorrow.

Farm Home Demolished.

ARDMORE, Okla., March 26.—(AP)—Two persons were injured, one critically, when a twister demolished a farm home six miles east of Lake Murray in Marshall county today as thundershowers swept through other sections of Oklahoma.

Mrs. Ade Williford, 35-year-old farm wife, was taken to an Ardmore hospital with spinal injuries, and her condition was regarded as grave. Her husband was treated for cuts and bruises.

The Williford's 12-year-old niece, Poda George, escaped unhurt.

Williford said the storm struck without warning as they were getting up this morning.

"I was putting on my pants," he said, "and the wind blew them out of my hand."

The freak twister cut a path only 100 feet wide through the Williford farm yard, roared on for about 200 yards demolishing trees, then lifted. So narrow was the path that Williford's barn was untouched.

HASKELL, March 26.—(AP)—A stiff norther accompanied by a driving rain caused a temperature drop here from the season's high of 100 degrees yesterday to 40 degrees this morning.

SIX HIGH SCHOOLS REPRESETED HERE IN DEBATE CONTEST

Debate teams representing six Texas high schools participated in a round-robin debate tournament Saturday at the Corsicana high school, under the sponsorship of Andrew Armistead, local coach. Teams were present from Denton, Highland Park, North Dallas, Malakoff, Mexia and Corsicana.

Corsicana's boys and girls teams debated each of the visiting teams in their classification and did not lose a decision during the day. Robert Yarber and George Labban represented the boys and Ruth Parker and Joyce Gentry represented the girls. These two teams have been selected as the officials representatives to go to the district tournament in Waco, April 9, in addition to Peggy Ann Levi and Ralph Norvell as declaimers and Margaret Sullivan as extemporaneous speaker.

Judges for the debates Saturday were visiting coaches and members of the Corsicana teams who were not participating in the debates during the day.

HUNGARY DEBT

Treasury officials hase estibated that the principle of Hungary's proposal, if applied to all governmental debtors to this country, would mean a scaling down of the indebtedness from approximately $12,000,000,000 to $7,500,000,000.

The president's message recalled the background of Hungary's debt.

"The indebtedness of the government of Hungary to the government of the United States is not a war debt," he said, "but is properly designated as a relief debt."

It was contracted May 1920, through the sale of flour by the United States to famished post-war Hungary.

SALT WATER MAY END FLOWING LIFE OF EAST TEXAS FIELD BY 1940 HUMBLE OIL MAN DECLARES

FORT WORTH, March 26.—(AP)—Salt water may end the flowing life of the East Texas oil field by 1940, Stuart E. Buckley, Humble Oil and Refining Co., Houston, told oil men here yesterday.

Speaking at the closing session of the two-day meeting of the southwestern district, production division, American Petroleum Institute, Buckley said if the water production should continue at its present rate of increase the flowing life of the field would be ended by Jan. 1, 1940, on the assumption of a daily output of 500,000 barrels of oil.

Drilling of new wells, he said, indicated the production figure may be increased and the end of the field's flowing life hastened.

He said the water production in the field now has approximately 185,000 barrels daily.

If water production continues to increase at the rate of the last two years, the loss in unrecoverable oil will be one billion dollars, the speaker estimated.

Buckley explained that continued withdrawal of both water and oil prevented the incoming water from rebuilding the necessary pressure.

SUCCESS OF HULL'S PROPOSAL FOR EVACUATION REFUGEES IS DEPENDENT UPON NAZI STAND

WASHINGTON, March 25.—(AP)—The success of Secretary Hull's proposal for evacuating political refugees from Germany and Austria, informed persons agreed today, will depend largely on what restrictions are laid down by the Nazi government.

Germany, they said, has followed the practice of permitting emigrants to take little or no money with them.

This policy has the effect of discouraging the refugees, and also raises the question in other countries of whether to welcome penniless persons.

Hull sent telegrams to nine European and 20 American nations yesterday, proposing the setting up of an international committee to facilitate the emigration through financing by private organizations.

The reaction from Germany was awaited with particular keenness, since it became evident Hull's proposal had not been communicated to Berlin.

State department officials did not anticipate that Germany would offer much objection to emigration in itself, since most of the refugee would be jews and therefore unwanted in Nazi states.

First evidence of support for Hull's evacuation propos. came from London, where it was received sympathetically in informal discussions.

The World Federation of Polish Jews appealed to Poland to extend protection to 30,000 Jews of Polish extraction in Austria. The United Palestine appeal began a United States campaign for $4,500,000. Since the Nazi regime began in Germany, officials said, the organization has settled 35,000 Jews in Palestine.

PRIVATE JAPANESE COMPANIES PREPARING TO OFFER HUGE OIL CONTRACT MEXICO GOVERNMENT

TOKYO, Mar. 25—(AP)—Through private companies Japan is preparing to offer Mexico a huge oil contract for the purchase of nearly 500,000 barrels of crude oil annually, it was learned today.

The contract would provide for Japanese technical assistance in construction of pipelines and improvement of harbors on Mexico's Pacific Coast.

Official quarters were silent on the proposal, but it was authoritatively learned the same companies approached the Mexican government a month before the outbreak hostilities in China last year. The deal was not completed.

The pipelines would cross the Isthmus of Tehuantepec, with Salina Cruz as the probable point of loading. The oil would have to be piped about 150 miles downgrade.

Since the outbreak of Chinese hostilities, Japan has ceased publication of oil import statistics, but official figures show she brought in 1,033,677,000 gallons of crude in 1936.

(Since expropriation of the foreign oil industry by President Lazaro Cardenas, a major problem of the Mexican government has been to find a foreign market for its wells, a prime source of revenue.

(Japan, with the third largest navy in the world and a large air force operating in China, has limited sources for fuel.

(A Japanese official informant, discussing the possibility of obtaining supplies in Mexico, recently pointed out President Cardenas had advised Mexican diplomats that his dispute with foreign oil companies would not cause him to drift "an inch" from "moral solidarity with the democratic countries of the world."

(Japan is linked by an anti-communist pact with Nazi Germany and Fascist Italy.)

ATTORNEY GENERAL M'CRAW FAVORS USING BOND SURPLUS FOR REIMBURSEMENT COUNTIES

AUSTIN, March 26.—(AP)—Attorney General William McCraw said today that the $8,000,000 surplus in the state fund for highway bond assumptions should be used to reimburse counties for payments they have had to make on state highway bonds since passage of the assumption act.

He disclosed his opposition to diversion of the money in a statement sent to the convention of the West Texas County Judges and Commissioners Association at Brownwood. He was unable to attend the convention because of the death of the mother of one of his assistants.

The attorney general said his department would give an opinion between now and July 15 on what disposition could be made of the surplus. The opinion was expected to point a way whereby counties could be reimbursed for the money the state should have paid from 1933 through 1937 but was unable to pay because of insufficiency of gasoline tax collections.

No money actually would be returned to the counties, under McCraw's plan, but the state would retire bonds issued for strictly local road purposes until the reimbursements had been completed.

The fund was built up through reduction of the amount of outstanding indebtedness.

"Since the state paid but 33-1-3 per cent of its part of the principal in 1933, McCraw said, "30 per cent in 1934, 50 per cent in 1935, 75 per cent in 1936 and 90 per cent in 1937, the shortages created during those years still remain a moral charge against the funds on hand."

The state met its interest obligations in full during that period but could not make 100 per cent principal payments.

Some persons have suggested that the existing large surplus in the bond assumption fund be transferred to highway construction or to the state's general fund.

CONVICT LEAVES INDICTMENT OF SOCIETY AND PENAL SYSTEM BEHIND AFTER HIS EXECUTION

COLUMBUS, Ohio, March 26.—(AP)—A convict who admittedly "never had the courage to live decently" left behind today a 650-word indictment of society and the penal system which sent him to the electric chair.

Everett Jones of Springfield Ohio, amazed a score of witnesses in Ohio penitentiary's death house last night when, in a subdued but firm voice, he read for five minutes from a prepared statement.

Then he calmly seated himself in the electric chair and received the supreme penalty for shooting to death Robert Lindsey, pool room proprietor, in a holdup last July 4.

"Ohio, I am a product of your prisons, read Jones, who spent 19 of his 33 years in penal and correctional institutions.

"Who can blame me?" he asked.

"The very fact that I hated these things shows I was fundamentally decent. The robberies I committed outside were moral protests. I felt that society had treated me rottenly.

"I saw around me a lot of lucky, indifferent people, outside of prison only by the laws of chance."

"If only I had had a single understanding friend when I was young," he exclaimed. "If my mother hadn't died, if my father had been a pal, with just a minimum chance I could have made a comfortable place for myself in the world."

Jones expressed belief that in the near future "a more humane method of penology will be evolved" and "it will not then be necessary to lock thousands of men in cells and permit them to rot their days away in idleness."

Jones termed his death "a crucifixion, not an execution," contending, "I have given my life for a friend."

Walter Barnes, 19, who assisted Jones in the holdup and received a life sentence for second degree murder, informed the state clemency board a week ago that he killed the pool room operator. But the board refused to believe him.

S. O. H. TAKES FIRST PLACE IN CLASS A DIVISION SATURDAY

M'CORD WON RUAL SCHOOL JUNIOR COMPETITION WITH TWENTY-THREE POINTS

Track and field events in six divisions of the Navarro county University of Texas Interscholastic League meet were run off Saturday at the State Orphans' Home, and the tennis contests, as yet not completed, were played at the city park courts. The literary events, usuaully run in connection with the track meet, were completed a Saturday earlier at the Corsicana High School and Junior High schools.

State Home ran off with the class A track and field meet, and according to the best available information scored 134 points against 12 points for Kerens, the only other class A contender.

The following results of the individual performers and schools' points were compiled from available information, based upon five points for first place, three points for second place, two points for third place and one point for fourth place:

Most interest centered in the class B track and field division, which I. O. O. F. won with 93 1-2 points. Frost came next with 18 1-2 points. Dawson third with 15 and, Blooming Grove fourth with 11.

C. Wheelis of I. O. O. F. was high point man with 19 1-2 points, and D. Smith of the same school was second with 19 points. Tucker of Blooming Grove and G. Wheelis and Rasson of I. O. O. F. were next with nine points each.

Junior Division.

McCord won the rural school junior division with 23 points, Buffalo was second with 20, and Long Prairie was third with 16 points. Ditto of McCord was high pointer with 10 points, McClintock of Buffalo was second, with seven, and Poulter of McCord and Morgan of Long Prairie tied with five points each.

I. O. O. F. won the high school junior division with 33 points; Mildred was second with 12 points; State Home third with 10, and Dawson fourth with five points. McMenamy of I. O. O. F. was high pointer with 16 points; Hodge of Mildred was second with 12; Cornwell of State Home came next with six, and Mason of I. O. O. F. trailed with five.

State Home won the grammar school division with 40 points, while I. O. O. F. trailed into second with 17 and Providence was third with five. Stubbs of State Home was top scorer with 10 points; Talley of the Odd Fellows came second with eight, and Thomas of State Home was third with seven points. Holley of I. O. O. F. and Ellis of State Home were tied with five points each for fourth place.

Only two events were reported in the rural school senior division, high jump and broad jump. In these two events, Bazette lead with 12 points and McCord and Bradley had five each. Tramel of Bazette and Goodman of McCord tied for top scoring position with five points each; Lancaster of Bazette came next with four and Crocket of Bazette and Lewis of Bradley made three each.

Other Contests.

Present plans call for the volleyball and playground ball contests to be played at Emhouse on April 23.

The girls tennis contests, a portion of which were played Saturday at the city park courts, were to be resumed at 1 o'clock Monday and scheduled to continued through the remainder of the afternoon until completed. Boys tennis is scheduled to begin at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the city park courts and continue through Friday or until completed, officials said.

Officials requested any coach planning to enter a man in the district meet to get an entry blank from the county officials or from the state UIL office.

Following are the results of the events in the various classifications, as reported by the directors in charge:

two hours. The government attempted to take a stand on the west bank of the river, about three miles from Fraga.

Two hundred insurgent planes raked the positions with machine guns and bombs, and Moroccan and Navarrese infantry took the ground on the first charge. Government troops fled back across the river and dynamited the principal Fraga bridge, leaving a thousand of their own men trapped.

WITH THE SPANISH INSURGENTS IN CATALONIA, March 28.—(AP)—Generalissimo Francisco Franco's forces today occupied Fraga, "gateway to Catalonia," and advanced northeast along the main highway toward Lerida and Barcelona.

Lerida, a textile manufacturing city, lies 15 miles from Fraga—both are within Catalonia—and Barcelona is on the coast, 80 miles to the east of Lerida.

The movement of heavy artillery to help insurgent airmen hammer Lerida's defenses awaited only the construction of pontoon bridges across the Cinca river, just west of Fraga.

The principal bridge across the stream had been dynamited by retreating government forces.

May Take Decisive Step.

LONDON, March 28.—(AP)—The long-inactive non-intervention subcommittee of the Spanish civil war today was summoned to meet March 31, indicating the possibility of decisive steps to get foreign "volunteer" troops out of Spain.

TEXAS WEATHER

however and rail traffic was normal.

No floods were reported in the Wichita Falls area where rain which totaled 2.71 inches continued.

Rains also were reported at Tyler, Baird, Abilene, Vernon, Borker, Paris and Olney.

Crops and ranges were reported benefitted over wide areas of the state. Cloudy and warmer weather was the general state weather forecast for tonight and Tuesday.

Rainfall Covers Oklahoma.

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 28.—(AP)—A slow, soaking rain covered Oklahoma today from the Plains of the Panhandle to the mountains of the southeast.

Streams rose slowly, but there was no threat of flood except near Duncan, where a "near cloudburst" brought the three-day precipitation to 3.4 inches. Two swollen streams threatened to flood two main highways.

Oklahoma City established a new March rain record of 5.10 inches as a 1.52 downpour struck, flooding some streets. The entire northwestern Oklahoma wheat belt was soaked by rains of from one to two inches. Boise City in the Panhandle had .50 inch of rain, Guymon .60 and Beaver .85.

"The rain is of untold valud to wheat in western Oklahoma," said Harry Wahlgreen, federal weather observer, "and the half inch or so in the Panhandle will be of considerable temporary value."

Panhandle reports said wheat was in good condition where it had withstood the dust storms of last month.

FORT WORTH, March 28.—(AP)—Two men were injured and 11 cars were derailed when a southbound Rock Island freight train hit a soft spot in the roadbed between Boyd and Newark at 10 o'clock last night.

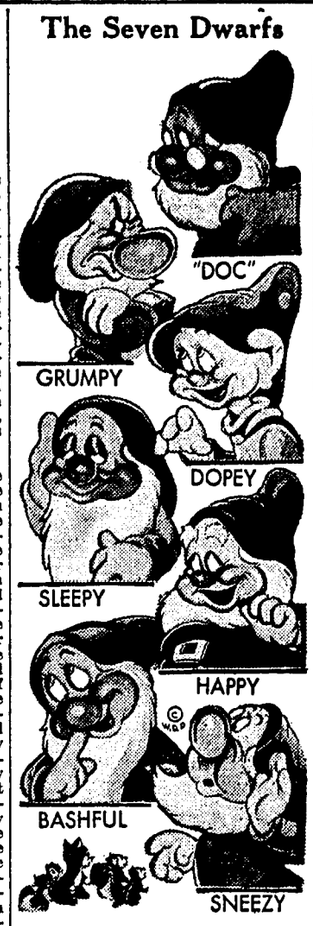

The injured men, S. L. Tankersley, 33, Oklahoma City, Okla., and C. S. Wiltshire, 29, Tulsa, Okla., were brought to City County Hospital here at 3 o'clock this morning by a Boyd physician, who gave them first aid after being called to the wreck scene.

Seven of the derailed cars were loaded with gasoline and caught fire immediately after the derailment. At mid-morning the fire was still so intense for workmen to start clearing the wreckage.

Rock Island trains were rerouted over Fort Worth and Denver railway tracks to Bowie.

Tankersley suffered a deep laceration on his right side and Wiltshire's back and chest were sprained. Both were suffering from exposure

WEEKEND VIOLENT DEATH TOLL REACHED ELEVEN IN TEXAS

HIGHWAY ACCIDENTS CAUSE OF MORE THAN HALF OF FATALITIES

By the Associated Press

Violent death came to 11 Texans over the weekend. Six died in highway smashups, one drowned, another plunged from a building, two burned to death and lightning struck down another.

Dalma Carter, 14; J. F. Reed, Jr., 17; Etheida Schaefer, 14, and Johnny Lane, 17, all residents in or near Tahoka, were killed in an automolie collision six miles south of Tahoka in which six others were injured, two seriously.

Jack Durham, 29, rancher who captained Texas Tech footall teams in 1930-31, died in an auto-truck collision near Hamilton. A. D. Harper, 29, was killed when the truck he was driving was struck by a passenger train near Coleman.

Near Paris a man was killed by lightning as he walked along the highway. A 1936 drivers license in his pocket was made out to Howard Casey, 50, of Rowlett, Dallas county.

At Houston a man police said was Elrod Seale, World war veteran, and another, identified by friends as W. E. Hardin, burned to death in a shack in a section of Ramshackle buildings.

The body of Mrs. Helen Maytum, 51, was found after a four-hour search in a well on a farm near Austin. A verdict of suicide was returned.

Jesse O. Wallace, 21, Slocum, Texas, freshman at Texas A. and M. colelge, plunged to his death from the college petroleum building. Justice R. B. Grant, Jr., of Bryan, returned a verdict of suicide.

Three Trainmen Hurt In Passenger Wreck

DENTON, March 28.—(AP)—The engine and two cars of a passenger train—the Katy Flyer—plunged 18 feet into a creek bed last night when a trestle two miles south here collapsed. Three crewmen were injured but all passengers escaped.

The engineer, Charlie Perry of Denison, suffered a broken leg and a lacerated right arm, and Charles Huffaker, also of Denison, was burned over the face and hands severely.

The baggageman, J. C. Parker, suffered a bruised back when the car turned over and most of the baggage piled on him.

A small creek runs under the trestle but there was little water at the time of the accident.

It was believed a torrential rain which fell last night softened the creek bed supporting the trestle, and when the train started moving across it, it sagged, derailing the engine, a baggage car, and an empty car.

The train, of the Missouri-Kansas-Texas system, was en route to Fort Worth.

Traffic was resumed over the trestle this morning at 7:30. The track was not badly damaged by the wreckage, which mostly fell clear of the track.

Strong Field For Pinehurst Tourney

PINEHURST, N. C., March 28.—(AP)—A strong field topped by Mrs. Estelle Lawson Page of Chapel Hill, woman's national champion, was entered today in the qualifying round of the 36th annual North and South Women's Golf tournament.

Other favorites include Jane Cothran of Greenville, S. C., Marion Miley of Lexington, Ky., Virginia Guilfoil of Syracuse, N. Y., and Dorothy Kirby of Atlanta, Ga., the southern champion.
